Rosa Luxemburg Paul Frölich,1972 Ideas in Action Stephen Eric Bronner,2000-01-01 Imagine a world in which means and ends theory and practice ideals values and interests are torturously disassociated and yet manifestly linked That is the world of the 20th century as Stephen Eric Bronner vividly portrays it in his important new work Now imagine a world in which new traditions mix with the old creativity blends with commitment and values from the past combine with bold visions of the future Creating this new fusion says Professor Bronner is the challenge for the 21st century and it inspires Ideas in Action Contemporary political theory has become alienated from politics It often neither discusses concrete political events nor touches the world of political action That is an intellectual luxury the academy of the 21st century can ill afford and Ideas in Action offers an accessible way out of the box into which the canon of political theory and philosophy has been stuffed With elegance and power Bronner surveys 20th century political traditions In the process he places theories and thinkers in their social historical and political contexts His sweeping presentation is organized into four imaginatively articulated phases that signal the direction of political thinking in the twentieth century Offering distinctive interpretations and criticisms presenting a new internationalist perspective Bronner imbues the text with original voices and primary sources from the very canon he is reconfiguring Careful notes of citation and explanation provide a pedagogical subtext that serves as a running bibliographic essay All this and more makes the perfect core or supplemental text for courses not only in political science but philosophy sociology history and cultural studies as well Ideas in Action is a book for thinking people seeking to understand the past and shape the next millennium in terms of a new planetary outlook and a cosmopolitan

Why Religion? Towards a Critical Philosophy of Law, Peace and God Dawid Bunikowski, Alberto Puppo, 2020-02-11 This book examines the relation between religion and jurisprudence God and peace respectively It argues that in order to elucidate the possible role religion can play in the contemporary world it is useful to analyse religion by associating it with other concepts Why peace Because peace is probably the greatest promise made by religions and the greatest concern in the contemporary world Why jurisprudence

Because quoting Kelsen's famous book Peace through Law peace is usually understood as something achievable by international legal instruments But what if we replace Peace through Law with Peace through Religion Does law as an instrument for achieving peace incorporate a religious dimension Is law ultimately a religious and normative construction oriented to peace to the protection of humanity in order to keep humans from the violence of nature Is the hope for peace rational or just a question of faith Is religion itself a question of faith or a rational choice Is the relatively recent legal concept of responsibility to protect a secular expression of the oldest duty of humankind The book follows the structure of interdisciplinary research in which the international legal scholar the moral philosopher the philosopher of religion the theologian and the political scientist contribute to the construction of the necessary bridges Moreover it gives voice to different monotheistic traditions and more importantly it analyses religion in the various dimensions in which it determines the authors' cultures as a set of rituals as a source of moral norms as a universal project for peace and as a political discourse

Faith in Art Joseph Masheck, 2023-06-15 Metaphysical thought has been excluded from much of the discourse on modern art especially abstract painting By connecting ideas about faith with the initiators of abstract painting Joseph Masheck reveals how an underlying religiosity informed some of our most important abstract painters Covering Wassily Kandinsky Kazimir Malevich Piet Mondrian and El Lissitzky Masheck shows how revealed religion has been an underlying but fundamental determinant of the thinking and practice of abstract painting from its very originators He contextualizes their art within some of the historical moments of the early 20th century including the Russian revolution and the Stalinist period and explores the appeal of certain themes such as the Passion of Christ A radical new theorization of the influence of religion over visual art Faith in Art asks why metaphysics has been eliminated from the discussion where it might have something to say This is a new way of thinking about a hundred years of abstract painting
