The Radical Insufficiency of Human Life Aileen

Dever,2000-01-01 The postromantic works of the Spaniard Rosal a de Castro and the Colombian Jos Asunci n Silva are indispensable in any anthology of 19th century Spanish and Latin American poetry However they found few appreciative readers during their lifetimes even while displaying two of the most sincere voices of the day Dever s book is unique it is the first comparison of Castro s and Silva s poetry Their works have meaningful differences but share remarkable likenesses in theme tone and style though it is doubtful that either was aware of the other s existence Of interest to feminist critics is an interpretation of Castro s literary vocation within a patriarchal society Using the ideas of three 20th century Spanish thinkers Jos Ortega y Gasset Xavier Zubiri and Pedro La n Entralgo Dever applies the concept of radical insufficiency to a comparison of the poets works Radical insufficiency holds that humans lack a determined being and fixed course for life thus norms are not available to make the world intelligible Humans experience feelings of uncertainty and emptiness which inevitably lead to anxiety Confronted by the mystery and pathos of human life Castro and Silva both describe futile attempts to overcome this insufficiency through creation and contemplation of art human relationships and religion The significance of these writers has transcended their own time when examined in the context of Spanish and Latin American authors and thinkers who succeeded them the importance of their works will continue to grow La Hija del Mar Rosalia De Castro,2010-08-31 La hija del mar es una reflexi n sobre el temperamento femenino Se trata de un relato reivindicativo en el que dos mujeres defienden su honra en medio del acoso masculino con premoniciones feministas
