Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1972 Long Time Gone

Alexander Bloom, 2001-05-03 With remarkable speed the Sixties have gone from lived history to mythology They remain alive in our culture in a manner different from any previous era At the dawn of a new century we are still debating the issues that emerged during that decade still living in the conscious aftermath of its events and transformations This collection looks back at the Sixties attempting to understand the issues of the day on their own terms and to think about their meanings in today's world Alexander Bloom has gathered ten original essays each of which explores the gulf between history and myth regarding a central characteristic of the Sixties Topics covered include civil rights the student movement and the New Left the Vietnam War the antiwar movement gay rights the counterculture and the women's movement Long Time Gone dispels myths about the Sixties and constructs an accurate vision of the past and an understanding of its impact on the modern world It is an invaluable resource for anyone seeking deeper knowledge of this incredible decade and its continuing influence on American culture

Bombardment, Public Safety and Resilience in English Coastal Communities during the First World War Michael Reeve, 2022-01-01 This book makes the case for a unique coastal urban experience of war on the home front during the First World War focusing on case studies from the north east of England The use of case studies from this region problematises an often assumed national or generalised experience of civilian life during the war by shifting the frame of analysis away from the metropolis This book begins with chapters related to wartime resilience including analysis of pre war fear of invasion and bombardment and government policy on public safety It then moves on to a discussion of power relations and the local implementation of policy related to bombardment including policing Finally the book explores the coastal urban environment focusing on depictions of war damage in popular culture and the wartime and post war commemoration of civilian bombardment This work provides a multi faceted perspective on civilian resilience while responding to a recent call for new histories of the coastal zone
