Stories of Four Decades Glenn Meeter, 2009-09 A number of the stories in Glenn Meeter s Stories of Four Decades have been reprinted most frequently Hard Row and A Harvest but they all made their first appearance in publications as diverse as The Atlantic Monthly Redbook Epoch The Literary Review and The Reformed Journal Each story has its own individual appeal Each has its own style theme mood its own plot and setting and its own cast of characters who come fully to life only within its boundaries

Even Peter Heitz in The Oppressor has different problems and preoccupations from the slightly older character with the same name in The Convert. But set with others in a collection that touches major points in life stories of Youth followed by those of Marriage and Parenthood and finally New Journeys each story takes on new dimensions. Together they form a tableau of life in the American Midwest and California a mid century Mecca for Midwesterners from the forties through the seventies. One thinks of the slow clank clank of tire chains on mall town winter streets in the first story the visitors to Grandmother s house paying Chicago tolls in the last and in between Lost Angeles freeways and South Dakota gravel roads. Another dimension is as ancient as Joseph in Egypt the clash of rural and village culture with urban modernity. Some characters need to break away from the village culture faith family community some lose it and re create it. Some seek it out. All need to re interpret it. And all struggle to maintain and pass on some aspects of that culture if only the awed thankfulness of the traveler in A Harvest who exclaims about his own journey but my God what a delight just to travel through.

The Souls of Black Folk W.E.B. Du Bois, 2000-11-01 Selected by the Modern Library as one of the 100 best nonfiction books of all time. The problem of the twentieth century is the problem of the color line. Thus speaks W E B Du Bois in The Souls Of Black Folk one of the most prophetic and influential works in American literature. In this eloquent collection of essays first published in 1903 Du Bois dares as no one has before to describe the magnitude of American racism and demand an end to it. He draws on his own life for illustration from his early experiences teaching in the hills of Tennessee to the death of his infant son and his historic break with the conciliatory position of Booker T Washington. Far ahead of its time The Souls Of Black Folk both anticipated and inspired much of the black conciousness and activism of the 1960 s and is a classic in the literature of civil rights. The elegance of DuBois s prose and the passion of his message are as crucial today as they were upon the book s first publication.

The Long Road Home and Other Short Stories from the Silences in the Gospel of Mark James S. Lowry, 2013-05-17 Borrowing from the ancient rabbinic use of midrash as a means of opening Scripture to students James Lowry has chosen six texts from among those in which he believes Mark deliberately left silences. The author is convinced Mark hoped his readers would be encouraged to raise a variety of possibilities as to what the evangelist left unsaid. Beginning with Mark choosing not to name the temptations of Jesus Mark 1 12 13 and concluding with Mark choosing to conclude his narrative with the women leaving the tomb of Jesus in stunned silence Mark 16 8 Lowry spins short stories that suggest several alternative ideas as to how the biblical narrative might have played. In half of the tales Lowry enters the text and adds fictitious material to Mark s narrative. In the other half his stories are set in the small textile town of Great Falls South Carolina where the author grew up in the 1950s. The hope is these stories will encourage readers of Mark and groups of his readers to raise other possibilities.

Hunting Trips of a Ranchman and The Wilderness Hunter Theodore Roosevelt, 2000-10-31 Written during his days as a ranchman in the Dakota Bad Lands these two wilderness tales by Theodore Roosevelt endure today as part of the classic folklore of the West. The narratives provide vivid portraits of the land as well as the people and animals that inhabited it ever underscoring the author's abiding concerns as a naturalist Originally published in 1885 Hunting Trips of a Ranchman chronicles Roosevelt's adventures tracking a twelve hundred pound grizzly bear in the pine forests of the Bighorn Mountains Yet some of the best sections are those in which Roosevelt muses on the beauty of the Bad Lands and the simple pleasures of ranch life The British Spectator said the book could claim an honourable place on the same shelf as Walton's Compleat Angler The Wilderness Hunter which came out in 1893 remains perhaps the most detailed account of the private life of the grizzly bear ever recorded This Modern Library edition contains an introduction by historian Stephen E Ambrose author of Undaunted Courage The Long and Winding Road: a collection of short stories Fairbanks, 2024-03-05 Long and Winding Road is a collection of eleven short stories Nine of the stories are prose one is a play and another is a narrative poem but all eleven are really stories just in different genres The value of a collection of short stories is that you can read just one story at a sitting or two sittings for the longer stories rest from it and then dip in for another treat next reading session Settings are primarily Australian though one story is set in a fictitious ancient kingdom and one in northern Mexico and parts of USA The short play is set in a nursing home of all places Readers will meet a range of interesting characters Miss Magnolia who has a secret Viv Black who uncovers a secret the trans gender Al Mara the young loom girl Therese who becomes Queen the boy wonder Agave who was born without vocal cords but is anything but mute Mohair Mary the talented and prescient Aboriginal woman Doreen teen Essie Esmerelda who discovers gold as she discovers her Self the former sex worker Penelope in a nursing home Master Nathaniel who dies by guillotine and dozens more Some stories border on the bawdy but nothing X rated some deal with tragedy and misadventure some with romance and strong personal bonds It's like life We trudge along life's path the winding road dragging life's burdens behind in the dust not knowing what lies around the next bend But always there are more stories to tell The Varieties of

Religious Experience William James, 2000-11-01 Selected by the Modern Library as one of the 100 best nonfiction books of all time The Varieties of Religious Experience is certainly the most notable of all books in the field of the psychology of religion and probably destined to be the most influential one written on religion in the twentieth century said Walter Houston Clark in Psychology Today The book was an immediate bestseller upon its publication in June 1902 Reflecting the pluralistic views of psychologist turned philosopher William James it posits that individual religious experiences rather than the tenets of organized religions form the backbone of religious life James's discussion of conversion repentance mysticism and hopes of reward and fears of punishment in the hereafter as well as his observations on the religious experiences of such diverse thinkers as Voltaire Whitman Emerson Luther Tolstoy and others all support his thesis James characteristic humor his ability to put down the pretentious and to be unpretentious and his willingness to take some risks in his choices of anecdotal data or provocative theories are all apparent in the book noted Professor Martin E Marry A reader will come away with more reasons to raise new questions than to feel that old ones have been resolved Tess of the d'Urbervilles Thomas Hardy, 2000-11-01

Etched against the background of a dying rural society Tess of the d Urbervilles was Thomas Hardy's bestseller and Tess Durbeyfield remains his most striking and tragic heroine Of all the characters he created she meant the most to him Hopelessly torn between two men Alec d Urberville a wealthy dissolute young man who seduces her in a lonely wood and Angel Clare her provincial moralistic and unforgiving husband Tess escapes from her vise of passion through a horrible desperate act Like the greatest characters in literature Tess lives beyond the final pages of the book as a permanent citizen of the imagination said Irving Howe In Tess he stakes everything on his sensuous apprehension of a young woman's life a girl who is at once a simple milkmaid and an archetype of feminine strength Tess is that rare creature in literature goodness made interesting Now Tess of the d Urbervilles has been brought to television in a magnificent new co production from A Oliver Milburn Chandler and Jason Flemyng is Alec d Urberville The cast also includes John McEnery Black Beauty as Jack Durbeyfield and Lesley Dunlop The Elephant Man as Joan Durbeyfield Tess of the d Urbervilles is directed by Ian Sharp and produced by Sarah Wilson with a screenplay by Ted Whitehead it was filmed in Hardy country the beautiful English countryside in Dorset where Thomas Hardy set his novels
