Fenway gets a taste of the wild when he goes on a back to school camping trip in the fourth book in this adorable middle grade series now in paperback. When Hattie starts using a word Fenway hasn't heard in a long long time, school, some other things change as well. The family fills the Food Box with yummy hot dogs and loads it in the car. Fenway is thrilled that he gets to go along wherever they are going and is even more excited when they arrive in the wilderness with tons of new scents to investigate, dogs and humans to meet, and lots of meat cooking over fires. Hattie seems excited about it all too, and happy her friend Angel also came, but when more families arrive with lots of new kids, she starts to smell nervous. Especially when one certain kid that all the others seem to follow everywhere starts bossing everyone around, Fenway can sympathize because a tiny dog is doing the same thing to all the other dogs. Fitting in can be a tough business, but luckily both Fenway and Hattie come around to realizing that being true to themselves is much more important.
