Sentimental Journey Through France and Italy Laurence Sterne,2019-03-26 A Sentimental Journey Through France and Italy is a novel by Laurence Sterne who travelled through France and Italy as far south as Naples and after returning determined to describe his travels from a sentimental point of view The narrator is the Reverend Mr Yorick who is slyly represented to guileless readers as Sterne s barely disguised alter ego The book recounts his various adventures usually of the amorous type Yorick s journey starts in Calais where he meets a monk who begs for donations to his convent Yorick initially refuses to give him anything but later regrets his decision He finds the monk they exchange their snuff boxes and Yorick buys a chaise to continue his journey The Works of Anatole France in an English Translation: The red lily. A translation by Winifred

The Writings of Theobald Wolfe Tone, 1763-98: America, France, and Bantry Bay, August 1795 to December 1796 Theobald Wolfe Tone, 1998 Comprised mainly of correspondence diaries autobiography pamphlets public addresses and miscellaneous memoranda this collection includes all of the writings of

Theobald Wolfe Tone barrister United Irishman agent of the Catholic Committee and officer in the French revolutionary army

This is the second of three volumes and covers Tone's attempt to settle in America the early days in France his negotiations with the Directory his entry into the French army and the expedition to Bantry Bay Catalogue of Official A.E.F.

Photographs United States. War Department. General Staff, 1919 Transnational France Tyler Stovall, 2018-04-20 In this compelling volume Tyler Stovall takes a transnational approach to the history of modern France and by doing so draws the reader into a key aspect of France's political culture universalism Beginning with the French Revolution and its aftermath

Stovall traces the definitive establishment of universal manhood suffrage and the abolition of slavery in 1848 Following this critical time in France's history Stovall then explores the growth of urban and industrial society the beginnings of mass immigration and the creation of a new republican Empire This time period gives way to the history of the two world wars the rise of political movements like Communism and Fascism and new directions in popular culture The text concludes with the history of France during the Fourth and Fifth republics concentrating on decolonization and the rise of postcolonial society and culture Throughout these major historical events Stovall examines France's relations with three other areas of the world

Europe the United States and France's colonial empire which includes a wealth of recent historical studies By exploring these three areas and their political social and cultural relations with France the text will provide new insights into both the nature of French identity and the making of the modern world in general
