Japanese Cinema Melissa Croteau,2022-11-14 This book explores significant representations of Shinto and Buddhist sacred space spiritual symbols and religious concepts that are embedded in the secular framework of Japanese films aimed at general audiences in Japan and globally These cinematic masterpieces by directors Akira Kurosawa Hayao Miyazaki Hirokazu

Koreeda and Makoto Shinkai operate as expressions of and potentially catalysts for transcendence of various kinds particularly during the Heisei era 1989-2019 when Japan experienced severe economic hardship and devastating natural disasters. The book's approach to aesthetics and religion employs the multifaceted concepts of ma (structuring intervals), liminal space, time, ku (emptiness), sky, mono no aware (compassionate sensibility), resigned sadness, and musubi (generative interconnection), examining the dynamic evolving nature of these ancient principles that are at once spiritual, aesthetic, and philosophical. Scholars and enthusiasts of Japanese cinema, live action, and anime, religion, and film, cinematic aesthetics, and the relationship between East Asian religions and the arts will find fresh perspectives on these in this book which moves beyond conventional notions of transcendental style and essentialized approaches to the multivalent richness of Japanese aesthetics.

Secular Spirituality Harald Walach, 2014-09-18 This book discusses spirituality as an emerging scientific topic from a historical perspective with extensive discussion of the mind-body problem and of scientific concepts of consciousness. While the book focuses on the Western tradition of Enlightenment, it also implicitly addresses the double meaning of the term with the Eastern tradition describing it as a state of true knowledge which is an important goal on an individual's spiritual path and the Western tradition seeing it as the collective process of getting rid of narrow-minded dogmas and concepts. The book is based on a simple yet challenging premise: Science has not gone far enough in the scientific process of going from a collective mind tied up in dogmatic teachings to a truly free mind that seemingly freed itself from bondage and restrictions. The book shows that science and with it our whole Western culture has to incorporate spirituality if it is to realize this goal of enlightenment. If that is done and it can only be done by many individuals actually practicing spirituality, this will also lead to the individual type of enlightenment.
