acceptable Utilizing a large mine of mediated imagery men and boys construct and define how to dress act and comport themselves By engaging critical discussions on everything from fashion to domestic space to sports and beyond readers are privy to a modern and fascinating account of the diverse and dominant perceptions of and on Western masculine culture Historical tropes and models are especially important in this construction and influence and impact contemporary variations

Fit for Consumption Jennifer Smith Maguire,2007-09-06 This is the first text to offer a comprehensive socio cultural and historical analysis of the current fitness culture Fitness today is not simply about health clubs and exercise classes or measures of body mass index and cardiovascular endurance Fit for Consumption conceptualizes fitness as a field within which individuals and institutions may negotiate if not altogether reconcile the competing and often conflicting social demands made on the individual body that characterize our current era Intended for researchers and senior undergraduate and postgraduate students of sport leisure cultural studies and the body this book utilizes the US fitness field as a case study through which to explore the place of the body in contemporary consumer culture Combining observations in health clubs interviews with fitness producers and consumers and a discourse analysis of a wide variety of fitness texts this book provides an empirically grounded examination of one of the pressing theoretical questions of our time how individuals learn to fit into consumer culture and the service economy and how our bodies and selves become fit for consumption Live and Die Like a Man Farha Ghannam,2013-09-04 An anthropologist deconstructs the notion of masculinity using twenty years of field research in the Cairo neighborhood of al Zawiya Watching the revolution of January 2011 the world saw Egyptians men and women come together to fight for freedom and social justice These events gave renewed urgency to the fraught topic of gender in the Middle East The role of women in public life the meaning of manhood and the future of gender inequalities are hotly debated by religious figures government officials activists scholars and ordinary citizens throughout Egypt Live and Die Like a Man presents a unique twist on traditional understandings of gender and gender roles shifting the attention to men and exploring how they are collectively produced as gendered subjects It traces how masculinity is continuously maintained and reaffirmed by both men and women under changing socio economic and political conditions Over a period of nearly twenty years Farha Ghannam lived and conducted research in al Zawiya a low income neighborhood not far from Tahrir Square in northern Cairo Detailing her daily encounters and ongoing interviews she develops life stories that reveal the everyday practices and struggles of the neighborhood over the years We meet Hiba and her husband as they celebrate the birth of their first son and begin to teach him how to become a man Samer a forty year old man trying to find a suitable wife Abu Hosni who struggled with different illnesses and other local men and women who share their reactions to the uprising and the changing situation in Egypt Against this backdrop of individual experiences Ghannam develops the concept of masculine trajectories to account for the various paths men can take to embody social norms In showing how men work to realize a male ideal she counters the prevalent dehumanizing stereotypes of Middle Eastern men all too frequently reproduced in media reports and opens new spaces for rethinking patriarchal structures and their constraining effects on both men and women

Praise for Live and Die Like a Man In a book that lives up to its name anthropologist Ghannam explores what it means to be a man Her thick descriptions amassed over 20 years of research will make readers laugh cry and gasp at the lives of these individuals By examining the construct of manhood Ghannam is charting new territory in Middle Eastern studies

Summing Up Highly recommended CHOICE With its focus on masculinity Farha Ghannam's thoughtful ethnography Live and Die Like a Man makes important interventions into the anthropological scholarship on gender childhood and family in the Middle East Her ethnographic sensibility perfectly grasps the dynamic and complex intertwining of male and female ways of being and self presentation and how that interrelationship forms men's lives
