Rajaniemi, Kristine Kathryn Rusch, 2018-07-10 The Postnational Fantasy Masood Ashraf Raja, Jason W. Ellis, Swaralipi Nandi, 2014-01-10 In twelve critical and interdisciplinary essays this text examines the relationship between the fantastic in novels movies and video games and real world debates about nationalism globalization and cosmopolitanism Topics covered include science fiction and postcolonialism issues of ethnicity nation and transnational discourse Altogether these essays chart a new discursive space where postcolonial theory and science fiction and fantasy studies work cooperatively to expand our understanding of the fantastic while simultaneously expanding the scope of postcolonial discussions Paragons Robin Wilson, 1997-04-15 A dozen of today's leading science fiction writers provide an inside look at how their craft is accomplished An invaluable and delightful tool for anyone who writes Paragons includes advice from Kim Stanley Robinson Bruce Sterling James Patrick Kelly Karen Joy Fowler Greg Bear and seven others SUN TZU IN SPACE (EB) Gregory D. Miller, 2023-03-14

Sun Tzu in Space provides a novel way of thinking about the future connecting international relations history and science fiction to better understand some of the various paths for future human activities in space Simultaneously it provides a way to use science fiction to help students and the public learn about international relations and the cyclical nature of history Author Gregory D Miller uses case studies history and foundational international relations concepts to draw big or at least possible conclusions about humanity's future in space By combining the lessons of science fiction and the facts of the past Miller presents possible outcomes with a goal of illuminating where things could go wrong or wonderfully right as humans venture forth into space in greater numbers in the decades to come New Boundaries in Political Science Fiction Donald M. Hassler, Clyde Wilcox, 2008 This book offers an interpretation of the evolution of a growing genre in literary film and television As a follow up to their 1997 collection Political Science Fiction Hassler and Wilcox have assembled twenty four noted international scholars representing diverse fields of inquiry to assess the influential voices and trends from the past decade in New Boundaries in Political Science Fiction The terrors and technologies that permeate our daily lives have changed radically in the past decade further highlighting the underlying speculations on our contested future that remain the core of this genre In surveying the vast expanse of politically charged science fiction of recent years the editors posit that the defining dilemma for these tales rests in whether identity and meaning germinate from progressive linear changes or progress or from a continuous return to primitive realities of war death and the competition for survival The discussion of political implications ranges among writers from H G Wells Robert A Heinlein Ursula Le Guin and Isaac Asimov to more radical recent voices such as Iain M Banks William Gibson Joanna Russ Philip K Dick and China Mieville While emphasizing the literature the collection also addresses political science fiction found on film and television from the original Star Trek through the newest incarnation of Battlestar Galactica

Hackers Gardner Dozois, Jack Dann, 2013-07-15 In the tradition of Mirrorshades stories from the virtual frontier A collection of short stories from the virtual frontier follows the exploits of the world's most notorious hackers and includes contributions from Greg Bear William Gibson Robert Silverberg and Bruce Sterling This wide ranging collection of cyberspace tales featuring the most cutting edge writers in science fiction goes beyond the stereotypes of computer rogues and delves into the true heart and art of hackerdom
