Oh! the Places I've Been Bernice Livingston

Youtz, 2014-03-05 Oh the Places I've Been is a memoir Bernice Livingston Youtz has written primarily for her family and a few friends. She relates childhood in the Depression of the 1930s; she always knew that it was spelled with a capital D adolescence during World War II; young adulthood marriage children in the post war 1950s. She recalls an early love of reading which led not surprisingly to an aspiration for travel although there was no opportunity for that until she was an adult; no study abroad programs or summers hosteling in Europe. She made up for that in work and travel in post war Europe and after her marriage she and her husband lived in Beirut Lebanon for three years. She writes of the great pleasure she took in raising her three children and in the travel she has been privileged to enjoy in recent years. She is grateful for the privilege of having lived in Lebanon and on two occasions in France has traveled in some sixty countries. She still reads, thinks often of the many people she has known throughout the world.
