Lois Weis

Ms Goes To College:

College Girls Lynn Peril, 2013-12-16 The author of Pink Think takes on a twentieth century icon the college girl A geek who wears glasses Or a sex kitten in a teddy This is the dual vision of the college girl the unique American archetype born when the age old conflict over educating women was finally laid to rest College was a place where women found self esteem and yet images in popular culture reflected a lingering distrust of the educated woman Thus such lofty cultural expressions as Sex Kittens Go to College 1960 and a raft of naughty pictorials in men s magazines As in Pink Think Lynn Peril combines women s history and popular culture peppered with delightful examples of femoribilia from the turn of the twentieth century through the 1970s in an intelligent and witty study of the college girl the first woman to take that socially controversial step toward educational equity

Working Class Without Work Lois Weis, 2013-10-15 The author wxplores issues of race class and gender among white working class youths and she considers the roles of school and family in the production of the self The book also examines the working class teens attitudes toward and readiness for postfeminist thinking and the emerging American New Right Presenting the first sustained ethnographic investigation of white working class youth in the context of deindustrializatin Weis offers a complex portrait of how these young people produce themselves in a society vastly different from that of their parents and grandparents

It's Meant To Be Part IV Sophie, Abigail Guzman risked her life to save a stranger named Gina only to find Gina was the real heiress to the Guzman family while she was a fake The Guzmans instead of appreciating her sacrifice kicked her out to make way for their baby girl Unbeknownst to them all Abigail s biological parents were the richest in the country Moreover the man she rescued from a group of international killers turned out to be Ronan Lucero the world s wealthiest heartthrob and her fianc

Reauthorization of the Appalachian Regional Commission and legislative proposals to create additional regional economic development authorities : hearing , Choosing Colleges Patricia M. McDonough, 1997-11-13 Based on interviews with students parents and counselors as well as case studies of the college guidance environments of a working class public school an upper middle class public school a private preparatory school and a Catholic school McDonough examines the everyday experiences of high school seniors as they choose their colleges The author shows that college choice is a more complex social and organizational reality than has been previously understood and shows how families and schools mutually influence individual student outcomes and our higher education opportunity structure After half a century of increasing federal state and private investments in higher education phenomenal growth in the number of colleges and enrollments of almost fifteen million students Choosing Colleges asks why it is that there are vast differentials in college access McDonough addresses access and equity issues by documenting how student college choice decision making is influenced by colleges high schools parents friends and the media
