Non-Aligned Movement Summits Jovan Cavoški, 2022-05-19 Using newly declassified documents from Serbian British Indian Chinese Myanmar U S and Soviet archives Non Aligned Movement Summits shows how the Non Aligned Movement NAM gradually evolved into the third force of Cold War politics enveloping most of the post colonial and non bloc world Jovan Cavo ki follows the evolution of the NAM through its summits and other gatherings during which major political decisions pertaining to the destiny of the Third World were made These events were scrutinized by all major powers and had a corresponding effect on their policies From the Belgrade Conference in 1961 until

1989 all major Third World and non bloc nations met to demonstrate to the Eastern and Western Blocs that they were independent active and respected participants in world affairs Cavo ki shows how these summits were also closely related to events occurring in the relationship between the two blocs providing opportunities for non bloc actors to influence the global balance of power By moving the focus of 20th century international history away from the bloc nations and instead giving developing nations in Africa and Asia due attention this book provides a fresh perspective on Cold War history and fills a significant gap in the literature It is an important study for all students and scholars of the Cold War and international history

Human and International Security in India Crispin Bates,Akio Tanabe,Minoru Mio,2015-09-07 With its common colonial experience an overarching cultural unity despite apparent diversities and issues of nation building cutting across national frontiers South Asia offers a critical site on which to develop a discourse on regional security that centres on the notion of human security This book analyses the progress that has been achieved since independence in multiple intersecting areas of human security development in India the largest nation in South Asia as well as considering the paradigms that might be brought to bear in future consideration and pursuance of these objectives Providing original insights the book analyses the idea of security based on specific human concerns cutting across state frontiers such as socio economic development human rights gender equity environmental degradation terrorism democracy and governance It also discusses the realisation that human security and international security are inextricably inter linked The book gives an overview of Indian foreign policy with particular focus on its relationship with China It also looks at public health care in India and issues of microfinance and gender Democracy and violence in the country is discussed in depth as well as Muslim identity and community Human and International Security in India will be of particular interest to researchers of contemporary South Asian History South Asian Politics Sociology and Development Studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Defending India Jaswant Singh, MP,2016-07-27 Defending India attempts to comprehensively analyse the management of conflicts and security challenges faced by India during its first half century as a free country The book is unique in being both the first in its genre and also in that it has been authored by a prominent Indian public figure a parliamentarian of high standing and a senior member of the present government in New Delhi This book plumbs the sources of Indian strategic culture and thought the evolution of its armed forces the management of conflicts in the past 50 years some 37 in all and along with examining India's defence expenditure patterns the author also addresses himself to the challenges that India faces in the future While presenting a new insight into the last 50 years Defending India also suggests essential structural changes for the future India's Missed Opportunity Marie Lall,2019-07-12 This title was first published in 2001 An important analysis of the links between the Indian Diaspora and the state and how this Diaspora can influence economic and foreign policy making in their country of origin M C Lall focuses on India presenting an unusual case whereby the Indian government in post independence years ostracized its Diaspora despite the need for outside help with India's economic development This in depth study of the failure of the Indian government to make good use of its Diaspora looks at the reasons why India did not cultivate a relationship after independence why there was still no change even in light of its economic liberalization and what have been the consequences of this missing relationship Indo-Soviet Relations, 1991

Political Science in India Rajendra Narayan Sharma, Santosh Bakshi, 1978 India's Southeast Asia Policy during the Cold War Tridib Chakraborti, Mohor Chakraborty, 2023-02-10 Over the course of four decades of the Cold War Chakraborti and Chakraborty analyse India's path from nonalignment towards realism and self assertion and finally to confidence building and interdependence with respect to their neighbours in Southeast Asia What were the reasons for India's shift from non alignment to a more pragmatic approach to foreign relations in its relationships with both the non Communist states of ASEAN and the Communist States of Indochina How was this shift perceived by those countries To what degree were Pakistan's foreign and defence policies responsible for India's changes in alignment throughout the Cold War What lessons can we draw from these events as the Indo Pacific is again becoming a major arena of great power rivalry In order to address these questions Chakraborti and Chakraborty study the development of India's foreign and security policies throughout the period tracking the changes of stances between and within administrations They evaluate how these decisions were driven by a combination of ideology pragmatism and changes in priorities as the regional architecture developed over time A valuable read for scholars and students of India's foreign relations and of Indo Pacific geopolitics more broadly
