Nordic Equality At A Crossroads:

Nordic Equality at a Crossroads Eva-Maria Svensson, 2019-06-04 Originally published in 2004 Nordic Equality at a Crossroads makes a major contribution to the debates on equality and difference in contemporary Europe In this absorbing work feminist legal scholars from four Nordic countries provide a critical account of the latest legal policies in these countries linked with gender in equality such as public financing of children s homecare regulation of the labour market towards substantive equality and the reforms concerning violence against women These issues are matters of concern everywhere in Europe and the solutions adopted in the Nordic countries will be of interest to all policy makers The increasing multiculturalism and the shift toward greater market orientation however have challenged the traditional Nordic equality policies The authors argue that a structural and contextual analysis of inequality also in the field of law is necessary to encounter the challenge of pluralism

Exploiting the Limits of Law Åsa Gunnarsson, Eva-Maria Svensson, 2016-04-22 Moving beyond the question of whether an area of scholarly investigation can truly be characterized as legal Exploiting the Limits of Law combats the often unhelpful constraints of law s subject matter and formal processes Through a process of reflection on the limits of law and repeated efforts to redraw them this book challenges the general sense of pessimism among feminists and others about the usefulness of law as an instrument of change The work combines theoretical analysis of the law s boundaries with investigation of the practical settings for changing legal and policy environments Both the empirical focus of this volume and its underlying theoretical concern with the limits of the law and its gender implications render it of interest to legal scholars throughout the world whether of EU law feminism social policy or philosophy

Extending Working Life for Older Workers Alysia Blackham, 2016-11-03 The UK population is ageing rapidly While age discrimination laws are seen as having broad potential to address the ageing challenge and achieve instrumental and intrinsic objectives in the context of employment it is unclear what impact they are having in practice This monograph addresses two overarching research questions in the employment field How are UK age discrimination laws operating in practice How if at all could UK age discrimination laws be improved A reflexive law theoretical standpoint is employed to investigate these issues applying a mixed methods research design that engages qualitative quantitative doctrinal and comparative elements This book demonstrates the substantial limitations of the Equality Act 2010 UK for achieving instrumental and intrinsic objectives Drawing on qualitative expert interviews statistical analysis and organisational case studies it illustrates the failure of age discrimination laws to achieve attitudinal change in the UK and reveals the limited prevalence of proactive measures to support older workers Integrating doctrinal analysis comparative analysis of Finnish law and the Delphi method it proposes targeted legal and policy changes to address demographic change and offers an agenda for reform that may increase the impact of age discrimination laws and enable them to respond effectively to demographic ageing Runner up of the 2017 SLS Peter Birks Prize for Outstanding Legal Scholarship The author was also awarded the

2020 ISA RCSL Adam Podg recki Junior Prize Same-Sex Couples before National, Supranational and International Jurisdictions Daniele Gallo, Luca Paladini, Pietro Pustorino, 2013-12-02 The present volume focuses on the jurisprudence of national supranational and international jurisdictions and quasi jurisdictions as regards the legal status of same sex couples Its aim is to explore the content rationale functioning and potential of the different jurisdictions reasonings and their contribution to the strengthening of LGBTI rights and duties As a consequence the book tries to convey the complexities and controversies that derive from the judicial recognition of same sex couples across the world taking always into account the relationship of the judiciary with the executive and the legislature and the related problems of legitimacy and democracy The volume deals with this issue and considers it as a crucial test for modern democracies and contemporary societies

Gender, Violence and Attitudes Satu Lidman, 2018-10-09 Gender Violence and Attitudes explores the history of gender based violence in early modern Europe particularly intimate partner violence and sexual violence It also investigates the legacy of gender based violence through the Enlightenment to the present day and offers a historical background to highly topical human rights issues Although the individual subjects of gender and the history of violence are not new topics the gendering of violence has received little examination Within this book the history of attitudes and practices related to gender and power are analysed and the nature of violence justice and societal considerations of gender are explored as cultural constructs they have the capacity to change over time although there also is a tendency for continuity The study is based on a wide range of sources including marriage guides poems plays legal texts and court records exploring deep rooted violence phenomena in Sweden including historical Finland the German territories England and to some extent France Offering a detailed analysis of gender and the culture of violence Gender Violence and Attitudes is essential reading for students and general readers who wish to understand the history of violence and its continual association with gender from early modern Europe to the present day

The Trouble with Marriage Srimati Basu, 2015-01-03 The Trouble with Marriage is part of a new global feminist jurisprudence around marriage and violence that looks to law as strategy rather than solution In this ethnography of lawyer free family courts and mediations of rape and domestic violence charges in India Srimati Basu depicts everyday life in legal sites of marital trouble reevaluating feminist theories of law marriage violence property and the state Basu argues that alternative dispute resolution originally designed to empower women in a less adversarial legal environment has created new subjectivities but paradoxically has also reinforced oppressive socioeconomic norms that leave women no better off individually or collectively Women Migrants From East to West Luisa Passerini, 2007 Based on the oral histories of eighty migrant women and thirty additional interviews with native women in the receiving countries this volume documents the contemporary phenomenon of the feminisation of migration through an exploration of the lives of women who have moved from Bulgaria and Hungary to Italy and the Netherlands It assumes migrants to be active subjects creating possibilities and taking decisions in their own lives as well as being subject to legal and political regulation and the book analyses the new forms of subjectivity that come about through mobility Part I is a largely conceptual exploration of subjectivity mobility and gender in Europe The chapters in Part II focus on love work home communication and food themes which emerged from the migrant women's accounts In Part III based on the interviews with native women employers friends or in associations relevant to migrant women the chapters analyse their representations of migrants and the book goes on to explore forms of intersubjectivity between European women of different cultural origins A major contribution of this book is to consider how the movement of people across Europe is changing the cultural and social landscape with implications for how we think about what Europe means Cover image Painting by Carla Accardi Reproduced with the kind permission of Luca Barsi of the Galleria Accademia Via Accademia Albertina 3 e 10123 Torino

Contesting Femicide Adrian Howe, Daniela Alaattinoğlu, 2018-09-03 Focusing on femicide this book provides a contemporary re-evaluation of Carol Smart's innovative approach to the law question as first outlined in her ground-breaking book Feminism and the Power of Law Routledge 1989 Smart advocated turning to the legal domain not so much for demanding law reforms as construing it as a site on which to contest gender and more particularly gendered constructions of women's experiences Over the last 30 to 40 years feminist law scholars and activists have launched scathing trans-jurisdictional critiques of the operation of provocation defences in hundreds of femicide cases The evidence unearthed by feminist scholars that these defences operate in profoundly sexed ways is unequivocal Accordingly femicide cases have

of criminal law that was not one of Smart's own focal concerns this book both honours and extends Smart's work by approaching femicide as a site of engagement and counter discourse that calls into question hegemonic representations of gendered relationships Femicide cases thus provide a way to continue the endlessly valuable discursive work Smart advocated and practised in other fields of law both in articulating alternative accounts of gendered relationships and in challenging law's power to disqualify women's experiences of violence while privileging men's feelings and rights Legal Stagings Kjell Å Modéer, Martin Sunnqvist, 2012 In this book a group of lawyers and legal historians help to identify the new Nordic legal map which is under construction This book is a collection of papers addressing legal staging and most of the articles combine theoretical approaches to the visibility of law with practical experiences and effects The texts show that law is so much more than law in action and law in books law is also part of a visual culture It contributes to that culture and is in turn analyzed, maintained and criticized by that culture At the same time the cultural manifestations of law change the way we understand law and thus change law itself Defining Human Trafficking and Identifying Its Victims Venla Roth, 2011-12-09 Trafficking in human beings has become a major international concern in the last two decades Trafficking has been subjected to intense political debate and ambitious legal regulation on international, regional and national levels Although much has been done to eradicate trafficking and to protect the victims an increasing number of critical voices are emerging the efforts to deal with human trafficking have proved to be more ineffective than anticipated This book seeks explanations to why anti trafficking strategies and activities appear to be so futile and what should be done better for them to achieve their goals with more success Besides the academic audience this study is written for legal practitioners who might come across human trafficking in their work Rape Narratives in Motion Ulrika Andersson, Monika Edgren, Lena Karlsson, Gabriella Nilsson, 2019-03-23 This book critically examines the last few decades of discussion around sex and violence in the media on social media in the courtroom and through legislation The discursive struggles over what constitutes sexual violence victims and offenders is normally determined through narratives a selective ordering of events and participants Centrally the book investigates the social processes involved in the telling of stories of rape and its political implications From a multidisciplinary feminist perspective this volume explores what narratives about sexual violence are deemed legitimate at this historical juncture This volume brings together feminist scholars working in a wide variety of disciplines including law legal studies history gender studies ethnology media criminology and social work from across the globe Through situated empirical work these scholars seek to understand currents movements between the criminal justice system and the cultural imagination Varieties of Liberalization and the New Politics of Social Solidarity Kathleen Thelen, 2014-03-31 This book examines contemporary changes in labor market institutions in the United States Germany Denmark Sweden and the Netherlands focusing on developments in three arenas industrial relations vocational education and training and labor market policy While confirming a broad shared liberalizing trend it finds that there are in fact distinct varieties of liberalization associated with very different distributive outcomes Most scholarship equates liberal capitalism with inequality and coordinated capitalism with higher levels of social solidarity However this study explains why the institutions of coordinated capitalism and egalitarian capitalism coincided and complemented one another in the Golden Era of postwar development in the 1950s and 1960s and why they no longer do so Contrary to the conventional wisdom this study reveals that the successful defense of the institutions traditionally associated with coordinated capitalism has often been a recipe for increased inequality due to declining coverage and dualization Conversely it argues that some forms of labor market liberalization are perfectly compatible with continued high levels of social solidarity and indeed may be necessary to sustain it New Challenges for the Welfare Society Vesa Puuronen, 2004

Europeanization, Care and Gender H. Dahl, M. Keränen, A. Kovalainen, 2011-10-04 This collection addresses the complexity of care arrangements in contemporary Europe developing new insights into debates about the care crisis gender equality the division of work and the reconciliation of care and work Comparative Law and Multicultural Legal Classes: Challenge or Opportunity? Csaba Varga, 2020-07-30 This book discusses legal education in multicultural classes Comparative law education is now widespread throughout the world and there is a growing trend in developed countries toward teaching global law Providing theoretical answers on how to describe each legal culture and tradition side by side it also explores educational methodological options to address these aspects without causing offence or provoking tension within a multicultural student community The book examines nine countries on three continents bringing together academic views and educational insights from ten scholars in the field of comparative law International Law and Violence Against Women Johanna Niemi, Lourdes Peroni, Vladislava Stoyanova, 2020-02-20 This book offers an in depth and critical analysis of the Istanbul Convention along with discussions on its impact and implications The work highlights the place of the Convention in the landscape of international law and policies on violence against women and equality The authors argue that the Convention with its emphasis on integrated and comprehensive policies has an important role in promoting equality but they also note the debates on genderism that the Convention has triggered in some member states The book analyses central concepts of the Convention including violence gender and due diligence It takes up major commitments of the parties to the Convention including support and services to victims criminal law provisions and protection of migrant women against violence The book thus makes a major contribution to the development of national laws policies and practice It provides a valuable guide for policy makers students and academics in international human rights law criminal and social law social policy social work and gender studies Strikes Around the World, 1968-2005, 2007 Are strikes going out of fashion or are they an inevitable feature of working life This is a longstanding debate The much proclaimed withering away of the strike in the 1950s was quickly overturned by the resurgence of class conflict in the late 1960s and 1970s The period since then has been characterized as one of labor quiescence Commentators again predict the strikes demise at least in the former heartlands of capitalism Patterns of employment are constantly changing and strike activity reflects this The continuing decline of manufacturing in mature industrialized economies is of major importance here though the global relocation of manufacturing may lead to some relocation of strikes Simultaneously we see the growth of disputes in the service sector the tertiarization of strikes This is evident particularly in public services including health care social care and education and is accompanied by a feminization of strikes given the prevalence of women working there This unique study draws on the experience of fifteen countries around the world South Africa Argentina Canada Mexico United States Korea Australia New Zealand Belgium Denmark France Germany the Netherlands Sweden and the United Kingdom Covering the high and low points of strike activity over the period 1968 2005 the study shows continuing evidence of the durability adaptability and necessity of the strike
