Peter Greenaway Papers:

Peter Greenaway's Postmodern / Poststructuralist Cinema Paula Willoquet-Maricondi, Mary Alemany-Galway, 2008-07-17
Since the 1960s British multi media artist Peter Greenaway has shocked and intrigued audiences with his avant garde approach to filmmaking and other artistic ventures From early experimental films to provocative features Greenaway has deployed strategies associated with structuralist cinema only to challenge or critique the very limits of that cinema and of film in general In this collection of essays scholars from a variety of disciplines explore various postmodern and poststructuralist aspects of Greenaway s films starting with his early shorts and delving into his feature length works including The Draughtman s Contract The Belly of an Architect A Zed and Two Noughts The Cook the Thief His Wife and Her Lover The Baby of M con and The Pillow Book Other artistic productions including his paintings and installations are also discussed These essays examine the filmmaker s position within British and avant garde cinema and his interest in constructing and deconstructing representational systems In the years since the first edition of this book Greenaway has enjoyed continued success in creating hybridized media projects for the stage and screen as evidenced by additional essays for this revised edition A new chapter addresses how Dutch political events and Dutch art have been crucial in shaping Greenaway s aesthetic focusing on The Draughtsman s Contract the 1991 opera Writing to Vermeer and Nightwatching the audio visual installation and 2007 film of the same name which were inspired by Rembrandt s Night Watch Also new to this collection is an essay that examines Greenaway s most ambitious endeavor to date The Tulse Luper Suitcases which exists as four feature films multiple websites an online game several books and installations and a number of theatrical events Peter Greenaway s Postmodern Poststructuralist Cinema Revised Edition explores the cultural historical and philosophical implication

The Politics of Popular

Representation Kenneth MacKinnon, 1992 These together with the emphasis on individual responsibility for health and material security not to mention resurgent machismo and a restored belief in the natural and unnatural help to explain the health disaster experienced in the United States United Kingdom and elsewhere A review of English language cinematic entertainment of the eighties reveals that the health crisis was scarcely alluded to although such values as those of militarism masculinity and family loyalty were addressed whether supportively or critically It is the argument of this book that the HIV virus and AIDS are approached if at all only obliquely particularly within the genre of the horror film and especially through those films dealing with corporeality or with lethal challenges to the traditional nuclear family Digital Baroque Timothy Murray, In this intellectually groundbreaking work Timothy Murray investigates a paradox embodied in the book's title What is the relationship between digital in the form of new media art and baroque a highly developed early modern philosophy of art Making an exquisite and unexpected connection between the old and the new Digital Baroque analyzes the philosophical paradigms that inform contemporary screen arts Examining a wide range of art forms Murray reflects on the rhetorical emotive and social forces inherent in the screen arts dialog with early modern concepts Among the works discussed are digitally oriented films by Peter Greenaway Jean Luc Godard and Chris Marker video installations by Thierry Kuntzel Keith Piper and Renate Ferro and interactive media works by Toni Dove David Rokeby and Jill Scott Sophisticated readings reveal the electronic psychosocial webs and digital representations that link text film and computer Murray puts forth an innovative Deleuzian psychophilosophical approach one that argues that understanding new media art requires a fundamental conceptual shift from linear visual projection to nonlinear temporal fields intrinsic to the digital form Peter Greenaway Paul Melia, Peter Greenaway, Alan Woods, Cornerhouse (Gallery : Manchester, England), 1998 Morality plays were the main form of theatre in England between about 1400 and 1600 They usually portrayed a representative Christian figure locked in spiritual conflict They have recently been revived as early examples of living theatre Reading Experimental Writing Georgina Colby, 2019-11-06 Bringing together internationally leading scholars whose work engages with the continued importance of literary experiment this book takes up the question of reading in the contemporary climate from culturally and linguistically diverse perspectives A History of Paper Oliver Emanuel, Gareth Williams, 2024-08-15 Winner of a Fringe First Award 2024 What use is paper To speak To imagine To remember It starts when she puts a note through his letterbox Hello Number 4 this is Number 6 Please could you SHUT THE UP Ta Not a promising beginning but they meet they fall in love they get married Then one day a letter arrives that will change them and the world forever Oliver Emanuel and Gareth Williams's A History of Paper is a musical love story about a man and a woman and the little bits of paper that make up a life This edition was published to coincide with the world premiere Dundee Rep and Traverse Theatre co production at Edinburgh's Traverse Theatre in August 2024 Paris Hollywood Peter Wollen, 2020-05-05 In this new collection of essays on film all written over the last ten years Peter Wollen explores an extraordinarily wide range of topics stretching from an analysis of Time in Film and Video Art to a study of Riff Raff Realism in British films There are provocative discussions of the works of established auteur directors such as Howard Hawks and Alfred Hitchcock and of the film making careers of such experimental movie makers as William Burroughs and Viking Eggeling the dadaist pioneer of abstract film The collection also includes fascinating studies of a number of film classics such as John Huston's Freud Jean Renoir's Rules of the Game and

Ridley Scott's Blade Runner Other essays deal with the relationship of film to the other arts such as dance and architecture and explore the interaction between film and anthropology This is not a theoretical book but it is one that suggests many new approaches to thinking about film and many unexpected connections between film studies and the history of such strangely related activities as espionage psychoanalysis Stalinism love of speed and digital technology Full of fascinating new insights Peter Wollen's new book is based on the premise that there are no fixed ways of writing about film but rather a plethora of paths leading in very different directions each contributing to a new understanding of the twentieth century's major art form

Rewriting/Reprising Georges Letissier, 2009-10-02 This volume comprises sixteen essays preceded by an introductory chapter focusing on the diverse modalities of textual and more widely artistic transfer Whereas the first Rewriting/Reprising volume coord. by C. Maisonnat, J. Paccaud, Huguet its subversive potential is perceptible notably through its many attempts at emancipating the genre from the ideological fetters of gender Over the past two decades Victorian literature and culture has become an inescapable field of investigations to any study on intertextuality in the English speaking world In a second part diversity has been preferred to any single specific angle to approach the Victorian neo Victorian tropism The purpose is to provide as complete a spectrum as is reasonably possible in such a volume The practice of rewriting in the Victorian age is thus studied alongside contemporary appropriations of the Victorian canon The question is raised of whether literary fetishism may not result in a form of counterfeit classicism while the more challenging neo Victorian rewritings would make a claim for the need to choose one's literary heritage and ancestors This is where the post colonial agenda comes in Precisely the third part investigates the question of rewriting reprising as a way of writing back The myth of Frankenstein's creature bent on wreaking vengeance on his creator is of course seminal as it offers a myth of transgression which in its turn becomes a foundation myth Not only are post colonial responses to their disclaimed parent texts highly theory informed but they also evince an awareness of such contemporary issues which are direct consequences of the colonial past In the last section of this volume the scope of what comes within the range of intertextuality per se is widened to cover artistic dialogism In the exchanges between theatrical texts reprise may be construed as a metaphor standing for the pleasure inherent in the process of recreation The interaction between embedded paintings and the embedding canvas offers yet another variation on the reprise motif as does the meta aesthetic discourse of the critic on the work of art What begins as mere repetition is soon colored by the personal inflections of the interpreter In operatic performances updating a classical text to make it suitable to contemporary audiences and in close harmony with the role assigned to music is liable to spur on the creativity of recreation

Philological Papers, 2001 APAIS 1994: Australian public affairs information service , Aesthetic Spaces Brigitte Peucker, 2019-02-15 Films provide valuable spaces for aesthetic experimentation and analysis for cinema's openness to other media has always allowed it to expand its own In Aesthetic Spaces Brigitte Peucker shows that when painterly or theatrical conventions are appropriated by the medium of film the dissonant effects produced open it up to intermedial reflection and tell us a great deal about cinema itself The films studied in these chapters include those by Abbas Kiarostami Alfred Hitchcock Michelangelo Antonioni Jean Luc Godard Carl Th Dreyer Peter Greenaway Rainer Werner Fassbinder Ingmar Bergman Jacques Rivette Fritz Lang F W Murnau Lars von Trier Spike Jonze ric Rohmer Lech Majewski and others Where two media are in evidence in these films there is usually a third and often theater mediates between film and painting Aesthetic Spaces interrogates issues of cinematic space and mise en scene from different but interconnected theoretical perspectives organizing its chapters around some of the formal principles space spectator frame color and lighting props d cor and actor that shape films Drawing on the older arts to renew cinema the films examined deploy paintings as material Poussin and Bruegel Rembrandt Hals and Klimt and medieval illustrations and modernist abstractions are used to expand our notions of cinematic space Peucker shows that when different media come together in film they create effects of dissonance out of which new modes of looking may arise Fires Were Started Lester D. Friedman, 2006 Fires Were Started is a provocative analysis of the responses of British film to the policies and political ideology of the Conservative governments of Margaret Thatcher and it represents an original and stimulating contribution to our knowledge of British cinema This second edition includes revised and updated contributions from some of the leading scholars of British cinema including Thomas Elsaesser Peter Wollen and Manthia Diawara The book discuss prominent filmmakers such as Peter Greenaway Derek Jarman Ken Russell Nicolas Roeg and Stephen Frears it also explores some lesser known but equally important territory such as the work of Black British filmmakers the Leeds Animation Workshop and Channel 4 s Film on Four Films discussed include Distant Voices Still Lives My Beautiful Launderette Chariots of Fire and Drowning by Numbers

Literary Intermediality

Maddalena Pennacchia Punzi, 2007 The increasing transfer of literary texts and of related writing reading processes from the printed page to analog and digital media and vice versa is the phenomenon under investigation in this book for which the term literary intermediality has been coined Literature is in transit i e travelling incessantly through mass media personal media and the internet with crucial effects both on the ways it is perceived by younger generations of users and on the ways it is devised by contemporary authors The literary text far from being restricted to printed media keeps moving across the whole media circuit thus acquiring at any stage a new temporary identity Based on the seminar Intermediality and Literary Practices at the 7th ESSE Conference in 2004 the essays of this collection by scholars from both sides of the Atlantic focus on the seminar s common topics cinema theatre postmodernism and new critical issues
