Realising Qualitative Research In Higher Education:

Realizing Qualitative Research into Higher Education Craig Prichard, Paul Trowler, 2018-10-10 Originally published in 2003 Realizing Qualitative Research into Higher Education looks at how qualitative research in broad terms confronts the question of the researcher's involvement in the production of knowledge However the method adopted even in highly positivist qualitative work has a history that bears on the research This volume provides examples of engaging research work outlining the key research process and examining the links between this and the final report A Research Agenda for Global Higher Education Huisman, Jeroen, van der Wende, Marijk, 2022-02-11 This innovative Research Agenda critically reflects on the state of the art and offers inspiration for future higher education research across a variety of geographical disciplinary and theoretical perspectives It explores the impact of Covid 19 and the need to re engage with the Global South and reconsider conventional paradigms and assumptions Leading international contributors address a set of salient issues ranging from research on macro level themes to meso and micro level phenomena

Cultures and Change in Higher Education Paul Trowler, 2008-08-20 Describes approaches to understanding cultures in higher education paying particular attention to cultures and cultural construction at departmental level Implications of cultural characteristics for issues around change initiatives including the enhancement of teaching learning and assessment are a key focus of this book Global Trends in Higher Education Quality Assurance Susanna Karakhanyan, Bjørn Stensaker, 2020-09-07 Globalization massification of tertiary education and ICT revolution have radically altered the tertiary education environment posing new challenges to governments higher education providers and other key stakeholders in terms of relevance and credibility of provisions With the radical alterations it became clear that the traditional means for internal and external evaluations are no longer adequate to ensure the acceptable level of tertiary education performance to meet the society development needs Considering one of the primary roles of quality assurance in tertiary education is ensuring relevance and credibility of tertiary education provisions to the ever changing needs of the macro world of industry politics and society at large more and more governments are currently prioritizing quality assurance to drive the required changes in governance of higher education systems mutual recognition across national borders and accountability to the public in different parts of the world As part of its mission the INQAAHE has undertaken a Global Study of both external and internal quality assurance developments worldwide in cooperation with the regional QA networks e g ENQA CANQATE APQN ANQAHE CEENQA in 2017 2018 The regions covered in this scoping study are as follows Africa the Arab Region Asia Pacific Eastern and Western Europe Latin America and the Caribbean and Northern America Global Trends in Higher Education Quality Assurance Challenges and Opportunities in Internal and External Quality Assurance provides a comprehensive coverage of the trends and developments in higher education quality assurance as they refer to legitimacy trust efficiency and relevance

Research Journeys Chloe Blackmore, Elsa Lee, Emma Seal, 2013-12-12 The aim of this book is to provide prospective and current doctoral students and their supervisors with a range of narratives of doctoral experiences The book is an outcome of a conference where both academic and professional doctorate students at different stages of their research shared their experiences of the process of completing a doctorate The ten candid accounts included in the volume provide a valuable insight into the kinds of challenges that arise and the ways in which these might or might not be overcome In so doing this book lifts the lid on some of the hitherto concealed aspects of the doctoral process The book also includes a chapter from an established academic with a record of writing about the doctoral student experience as well as inserts from a doctoral programme leader and an experienced academic supervisor In the Introduction the editors review some of the current literature on experiences of the doctoral research journey and the research process The book concludes with the editors reflections on both the unique nature of doctoral research for each individual and the common stages that students experience on the journey

Implementing Communities of Practice in Higher Education Jacquie McDonald,Aileen Cater-Steel,2016-11-23 In this edited collection the authors pick up the communities of practice CoP approach of sharing practice in their reflection on the experience of taking their CoP vision from a dream to reality Their stories articulate the vision the passion and the challenge of working within and or changing existing institutional culture and practice The book discusses strategies that worked and considers the lessons learnt to inspire future dreamers and schemers The multiple perspectives provided in the case studies will assist higher education leaders as well as academic and professional staff in establishing or assessing CoPs The book offers insights into implementation strategies practical guidelines and ideas on how CoP theoretical underpinnings can be tailored to the higher education context Higher Education and Civic Engagement: International Perspectives Iain Mac Labhrainn,2016-12-05 This volume provides an original and powerful contribution to debates about the civic purpose of higher education It suggests that universities can best realize their civic mission by making it central to their policy and practice Bringing together researchers from three continents the book offers an international perspective based primarily upon first hand pedagogical experience A transatlantic overview of the purpose place and practice of one such pedagogy service learning is provided and its potential as a foundation for civic engagement assessed In its last section the book moves from the theory of citizenship to practical considerations In doing so the book offers advice on establishing civic engagement to all those involved in teaching and learning within higher education Teacher Noticing: Bridging and Broadening Perspectives, Contexts, and Frameworks Edna O. Schack,Molly H. Fisher,Jennifer A. Wilhelm,2017-05-16 This book reflects on the continuing development of teacher noticing through an exploration of the latest research The authors and editors seek to clarify the construct of teacher noticing and its related branches and respond to challenges brought forth in earlier research The authors also investigate teacher noticing in multiple contexts and frameworks including mathematics science international venues and various age groups Learning Gain in Higher Education Christina Hughes,Malcolm Tight,2021-01-29 Responding to the larger amount of students that are bearing an increasing proportion of the costs of their
