Realists At Work Studio Interviews:

Realists at Work John Arthur, 1983 Wayne Thiebaud Timothy Anglin Burgard, 2025-03-18 Explores Wayne Thiebaud's career as a self-described thief who appropriated and reinterpreted old and new European and American artworks. Although artist Wayne Thiebaud 1920-2021 earned acclaim for his poetic renderings of the prosaic particulars of American life, he openly admitted that it's hard for me to think of artists who weren't influential on me because I'm such a blatant thief. Wayne Thiebaud Art Comes from Art features the artist's virtuosic appropriations and reinterpretations of old and new European and American artworks spanning from Andrea Mantegna to Édouard Manet, Henri Matisse to Richard Diebenkorn, offering crucial insights into his creative process. Thiebaud's exploration of art, artists, and art history along with the practices of copying, appropriation, and reinterpretation allowed him not only to see through the eyes of other artists but also to commune with them through their work, expanding his own vision. This career-long engagement with the concept of appropriation illustrates his perception of art history as an encyclopedic bureau of standards, a rich repository and resource that offers working artists community with their predecessors and communion with their artworks. Published in association with the Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco. Exhibition dates: Legion of Honor, March 22-August 17, 2025 Animated Realism Judith Kriger, 2012 Unique insight into the techniques of Oscar-winning animated documentaries from some of the world's leading animators Dialogues on Agential Realism Malou Juelskjær, Helle Plauborg, Stine W. Adrian, 2020-09-13 Dialogues on Agential Realism is built up around dialogues with key scholars in the field: Magdalena G. Ryska, Astrid Schrader, Elizabeth de Freitas, Ericka Johnson, and Karen Barad. The book investigates agential realist-inspired research practices and provides illustrations of what response-able knowledge production may involve. Based on thorough readings of the scholars' work, careful dialogues concerning the challenges, messiness, thrill, and inventiveness of research processes are brought to the fore. The dialogues with G. Ryska, Schrader, de Freitas, and Johnson were based on specific research projects which drew inspiration from agential realist theory in combination with the ideas of other thinkers. The dialogue with Barad focuses on the continuous development of agential realism. In addition, the book consists of a chapter that introduces agential realism and a closing chapter focusing on some of the main insights agential realism has to offer in relation to research practices. The book offers new entry points to agential realism and the conduct of research. It may vitalize methodological prudence and creativity and spark new and previously unimagined ways of thinking and doing research. As such, it will be an essential resource to both newcomers and scholars and students who are already familiar with the theory of agential realism.

Marking the Centenary of Samuel Alexander's Space, Time and Deity A.R.J. Fisher, 2021-06-04 This book is an edited collection of essays in celebration of the centenary of Samuel Alexander's Space, Time and Deity, published in 1920. Samuel Alexander (1859-1938) was a leading figure of British philosophy in the early twentieth century. He was partly responsible for the new realism movement along with G.E. Moore and Bertrand Russell. However, his work has been overlooked in developments of twentieth century philosophy and yet his theories and style of theorising are in vogue This book begins with three previously unpublished papers by Alexander that shed light on his metaphysical commitments about time universals God knowledge of past truths grounding and inference in logic and science There are also two important posthumous chapters by philosophers of the mid twentieth century who elaborate on his life and most significant contributions The second half of the book contains new essays by current scholars discussing Alexander on metaphysical realism idealism naturalism space and time process ontology ontological categories epistemology perception philosophy of history emergentism and empiricism

Beyond Documentary Realism Cyrielle Garson, 2021-02-22 Verbatim theatre a type of performance based on actual words spoken by real people has been at the heart of a remarkable and unexpected renaissance of the genre in Great Britain since the mid nineties The central aim of the book is to critically explore and account for the relationship between contemporary British verbatim theatre and realism whilst questioning the much debated mediation of the real in these theatre practices

Figures of Alterity Lawrence R. Schehr, 2003 This book focuses on the extension of realist writing toward alterity toward otherness in its ongoing efforts to enable individuals to speak and be heard correctly Through a series of close readings of six authors from Balzac to Proust the author shows the ways realist narrative engages the problem of bringing the other into the realm of the discursively representable The acts of representation involved in that development were not necessarily coterminous with either the representation of the exotic and its attendant stereotypes or with the representation of individuals themselves The representation of the other was the extension of discourse to what was previously unrepresentable The author argues that the unrepresentable is often perceived as oppositional because of the structuring of discourse by hierarchies and metaphysics whereby any bivalent pair is made into an oppositional pair

The Space that Separates: A Realist Theory of Art Nick Wilson, 2019-08-23 The Space that Separates A Realist Theory of Art radically challenges our assumptions about what art is what art does who is doing it and why it matters Rejecting the modernist and market driven misconception that art is only what artists do Wilson instead presents a realist case for living artfully Art is defined as the skilled practice of giving shareable form to our experiences of being in relation with the real that is to say the causally generative domain of the world that extends beyond our direct observation comprising relations structures mechanisms possibilities powers processes systems forces values ways of being In communicating such aesthetic experience we behold life s betweenness the space that separates so coming to know ourselves as connected Providing the first dedicated and comprehensive account of art and aesthetics from a critical realist perspective Aesthetic Critical Realism ACR Wilson argues for a profound paradigm shift in how we understand and care for culture in terms of our system s of value recognition Fortunately we have just the right tool to help us achieve this transformation and it s called art Offering novel explanatory accounts of art aesthetic experience value play culture creativity artistic truth and beauty this book will appeal to a wide audience of students and scholars of art aesthetics human development philosophy and critical realism as well as cultural practitioners and policy makers Realism's Others Eva Aldea, Geoffrey Baker, 2010-07-12 For at least a century scholarship on realist narrative and occasional polemics against realist narrative have assumed that realism promotes the values of sameness against those of otherness and that it does so by use of a narrative mode that excludes certain epistemologies ideologies and ways of thinking However the truth is more complex than that as the essays in this volume all demonstrate Realism's Others examines the various strategies by which realist narratives create the idea of difference whether that difference is registered in terms of class ethnicity epistemology nationality or gender The authors in this collection examine in detail not just the fact of otherness in some canonical realist and canonical magical realist and postmodern novels but the actual means by which that otherness is established by the text These essays suggest that neither realist narrative nor narratives positioned as anti realist take otherness for granted rather the texts discussed here actively create difference and this creation of difference often occasions severe difficulties for the novels representational schema How does one represent different types of knowledge other aesthetic modes or other spaces for example in texts whose epistemology has long been seen as secular and empirical whose aesthetic mode has always been approached as pure descriptive mimesis and whose settings are largely domestic These essays all begin with a certain collision of nationalities of classes of representational matrices of religions and go on to chart the challenges that this collision presents to our ideas or stereotypes of realism or to the possibilities of writing against and beyond realism This question motivates examination of key realist or social realist texts in some of these essays by Honor de Balzac George Eliot Franz Grillparzer Theodor Storm Gottfried Keller Theodor Fontane Wilhelm Raabe Mar a Amparo Ruiz de Burton Henry James William Dean Howells Charles Chesnutt Theodore Dreiser H T Tsiang Alan Sillitoe and Richard Yates However it is no less central a question in certain non realist texts which engage realist aims to a surprising degree often to debate them openly some of these essays discuss in this light fantastic magical realist and postmodern works by Abram Tertz Paul Auster Alejo Carpentier Toni Morrison Gabriel Garc a M rquez Salman Rushdie and A S Byatt Realism becomes more than an aesthetic aim or narrative mode It becomes rather a value evoked and discussed by all of the works analyzed here in order to reveal its impact on fiction's treatment of ethnicity nationality ideology space gender and social class Psychical Realism Alexander Streitberger, 2020-10-20 Comprehensive overview of a highly influential contemporary artist's work Victor Burgin counts among the most versatile figures within art and visual culture since the late 1960s His artwork both connects with and reacts to minimalism conceptual art staged photography appropriation art video art and more recently computer based imaging As a scholar his thinking is informed by phenomenology semiotics poststructuralism feminist theory and psychoanalysis This monograph provides a comprehensive and unique overview of Victor Burgin's body of work over the past five decades Identifying the concept of psychical realism as an overarching umbrella term Alexander Streitberger traces back the artist's parallel unfolding of practice and theory while situating this process within various historical contexts and critical

The ^AOxford Handbook of American Literary Realism Keith Newlin, 2019-08-01 The Oxford Handbook of American Literary Realism offers fresh interpretations of the artistic and political challenges of representing life accurately It is the first book to treat the subject topically and thematically in wide scope with essays that draw upon recent scholarship in literary and cultural studies to offer an authoritative and in depth reassessment of major and minor figures and the contexts that shaped their work

Realism for the Masses Chris Vials, 2010-04-13 Realism for the Masses is an exploration of how the concept of realism entered mass culture and from there how it tried to remake America The literary and artistic creations of American realism are generally associated with the late nineteenth century But this book argues that the aesthetic actually saturated American culture in the 1930s and 1940s and that the Left social movements of the period were in no small part responsible The book examines the prose of Carlos Bulosan and H T Tsiang the photo essays of Margaret Bourke White in Life magazine the bestsellers of Erskine Caldwell and Margaret Mitchell the boxing narratives of Clifford Odets Richard Wright Nelson Algren and the Hollywood boxing film radio soap operas and the domestic dramas of Lillian Hellman and Shirley Graham and more These writers and artists infused realist aesthetics into American mass culture to an unprecedented degree and also built on a tradition of realism in order to inject influential definitions of the people into American popular entertainment Central to this book is the relationship between these mass cultural realisms and emergent notions of pluralism Significantly Vials identifies three nascent pluralisms of the 1930s and 1940s the New Deal pluralism of We re the People in The Grapes of Wrath the racially inclusive pluralism of Vice President Henry Wallace s The People s Century and the proto Cold War pluralism of Henry Luce s The American Century

Working Space Frank Stella, 1986 A bombshell this is a book that explodes many received ideas about abstraction It is certainly one of the most remarkable books ever written on the subject What makes it so remarkable of course is that Stella is unquestionably the most celebrated abstract painter of his generation Hilton Kramer Atlantic Working Space affords a rare opportunity to view painting from the inside out through the eyes of one of the world s most prominent abstract painters Frank Stella describes his perception of other artists work as well as his own in this handsomely illustrated volume Stella uses the crisis of representational art in sixteenth century Italy to illuminate the crisis of abstraction in our time The artists who followed Leonardo Michelangelo Raphael and Titian searched for new directions to advance their work from beneath the shadow of these great painters Caravaggio pointed the way So today Stella believes the successors to Picasso Kandinsky and Pollock must seek a pictorial space as potent as the one Caravaggio developed at the beginning of the seventeenth century Stella sees Caravaggio as the pivot on whom painting turns his consummate illusionism prompting the advance of a more flexible more real space that allows painting to move and breathe to suggest extension and unrestricted motion Following Caravaggio Rubens broad vision of fullness and active volume gave painting a momentum that helped propel it into the nineteenth century where it came to rest in the genius of Gericault and Manet themselves the precursors of modern painting Unfortunately both contemporary abstract art and figurative painting have become trapped by ambiguous pictorial space and by a misguided emphasis on materiality pigment for pigment's sake Pictorial qualities have given way to illustrational techniques Abstract art has become verbal defensive and critical caught up in theology masquerading as theory Stella asserts that painting must understand its past make use of the lucid realism of seventeenth century Italy and absorb a Mediterranean physicality to reinforce the lean spirituality of northern abstraction pioneered by Mondrian and Malevich Working Space will provoke discussion and argument not least because Stella offers nontraditional evaluations of the works of giants such as Raphael Titian Michelangelo Picasso and Pollock as well as lesser known figures including Annibale Carracci Paulus Potter and Morris Louis The artist's powers of discernment and the profusion of his ideas and opinions will dazzle and engage professionals amateurs and students of art The Studio, 1902
