the sequence desire excess pause rupture break recuperation surprise The works of Levinas i ek Bataille Blanchot Foucault and Ricoeur are interpreted and positioned according to the proposed template of desire excess pause The consideration of limit experiences involves authors fascinated by transgression and the question of whether excess is immanent or transcendent This discussion considers works by Nietzsche Deleuze i ek and Foucault The analysis of surprise and the beginning of recovery after the pause considers works by Fink Merleau Ponty Nancy Lyotard Dufrenne Bachelard and Seel The provocative argument elaborated in this work is that surprise starts with indifference Furthermore the argument is that surprise begins where the concept reaches its ending hence that the limit of speculative thinking at its ending is the limit of aesthetics at its beginning The work of Hegel Schelling and Jaspers are discussed in order to argue for the beginning of aesthetics there where knowledge ends Philosophical thematic is contextualized via sections on artists such as Duchamp and Mondrian and on some films provoking interest of aestheticians working in art history and cultural studies departments
