the CICJC the Institute of Evidence Law and Forensic Science ELFS at China University of Political Science and Law CUPL and Peking University School of Transnational Law STL in Shenzhen China on November 16 17 2019 Historians legal scholars and legal practitioners share the same interest in ascertaining the truth in their respective professional endeavors It is generally recognized that any historical study without truthful narration of historical events is fiction and that any judicial trial without accurate fact finding is a miscarriage of justice In both historical research and the judicial process practitioners are invariably called upon before making any arguments to prove the underlying facts using evidence regardless of how the concept is defined or employed in different academic or practical contexts Thus historians and legal professionals have respectively developed theories and methodological tools to inform and explain the process of gathering evidentiary proof

When lawyers and judges reconsider the facts of cases questions of law are actually a subset of questions of fact and thus the legal interpretation process also involves questions of historical fact The book brings together more than twenty leading history and legal scholars from around the world to explore a range of issues concerning the role of facts as evidence in both disciplines As such the book is of enduring value to historians legal scholars and everyone interested in truth seeking
