through Christian-Muslim Understanding Sarah Markiewicz, 2016-10-10 The open letter A Common Word Between Us and You Amman 2007 is a unique example of Christian Muslim dialogue The central message behind ACW is that the future of the world depends on peace between Muslims and Christians ACW aims to achieve political change through theological argumentation An improvement in Islam West relations can be indirectly achieved through a focus on improving Christian Muslim relations This study investigates the genesis and fruits of ACW highlighting the importance of a specific historical and sociopolitical Sitz im Leben which decisively influenced its form and content Recovering the Female Voice in Islamic Scripture Georgina L. Jardim, 2016-04-08 Protest is an activity not associated with the pious and collectively minded but more often seen as an activity of the liberal and rebellious Judaism Christianity and Islam are commonly understood as paragons of submission and obedience following Abraham s example Yet the scriptures of all three faiths are founded in the prophets protesting wrongs in the social order The Qur an claims that men and women and the relations between them are a sign from God The question is to what extent are women silenced in the text and do they share with men in shaping the prophetic scriptures This book finds that far from silencing women the Qur an affirms the female voice as protester for justice and as questioner of Theology In this reading of the female role in divine revelation in the Islamic text Georgina Jardim returns to the scriptures of the Judeo Christian counterpart of the Abrahamic faiths to investigate whether the Bible may claim women as brokers of revelation The result is an enriched understanding of divine communication in the Abrahamic scriptures and a commonplace for reasoning about the female voice as speaker in the Word of God Transformative Readings of Sacred

Wonjoo Hwang, 2019-01-23 Various ministry approaches have been utilized in Muslim nations in the past in order to lead lost souls into God's Kingdom One noticeable trend in recent years in the ministry is an increasing emphasis on contextualization While the evangelical missiological community searches for more effective contextualization models some ad hoc proposals have complicated the issue One representative case is the Insider Movement among Muslims whose advocates contend that Muslim followers of Isa Jesus can remain within their own Islamic socio religious community while continuing in Islamic religious practices What is urgently needed in the contemporary discussion on contextualization is to develop a comprehensive analytical framework based on a sound biblical theological foundation for evaluating any missiological model After reviewing the historical development of Muslim evangelism models this study provides such an analytical framework for developing a healthier contextualization model among Muslims and applies this framework to the Insider Movement by critically evaluating the biblical interpretations and missiological reasonings of the Insider Movement advocates The writer calls for a healthier contextualization model among Muslims that is biblically authentic and culturally relevant

Gender Justice in Muslim-Christian Readings Anne Hege Grung,2015-09-29 In recent decades women in the Christian and Islamic traditions have been negotiating what it means to participate in religious practice as a woman within the two traditions and how to interpret canonical scripture This book creates a shared space for Muslim and Christian women with diverse cultural and denominational backgrounds by making meaning of texts from the Bible the Koran and the Hadith It builds on the reading and discussion of the Hagar narratives as well as 1 Timothy 2 8 15 and Sura 4 34 from the New Testament and the Koran respectively by a group of both Christian and Muslim women Interpretative strategies and contextual analyses emerge from the hermeneutical analysis of the women s discussions on the ambiguous contributions of the texts mentioned above to the traditional views on women This book shows how intertextual dialogue between the Christian and Islamic traditions establishes an interpretative community through the encounter of Christian and Muslim readers The negotiation between a search for gender justice and the Christian and Islamic traditions as lived religions is extended into a quest for gender justice through the co reading of texts In times when gender and the status of women are played into the field of religious identity politics this book shows that bringing female readers together to explore the canonical texts in the two traditions provides new insights about the texts the contexts and the ways in which Muslim Christian dialogue can provide complex and promising hermeneutical space where important questions can be posed and shared strategies found
