

Example of Annotated Bibliography in MLA Format (with Evaluations of the Source)

The diagram illustrates the MLA format for an annotated bibliography. It shows two entries, each consisting of a citation and an annotation. The citation is centered, and the annotation is indented 1/2 inch. The entire entry is enclosed in a 1-inch margin. The citation is followed by the page number, right-aligned, with a 1/2 inch margin. The annotation is divided into two parts: a summary and an evaluation. The summary is the first part of the annotation, and the evaluation is the second part. The diagram uses red arrows and text to highlight the formatting requirements.

Citation → Centered → Annotated Bibliography

1 inch margin (top and bottom)

Annotations:

Doerr, John. Measure What Matters: How Google, Bono, and the Gates Foundation Rock the World with OKRs. Penguin, 2018.

This book is written by Doerr, who is the chair of a venture capitalist group. The book describes how business organizations can use OKRs to drive the focus of a company through agility, which leads to explosive growth. There are first-person, behind the scenes case studies narrated by leaders like Bill Gates and Bono. This book helps guide understanding of business and management strategies that drive the success of large companies.

Wilson, John Philip. When the Texans Came: Missing Records from the Civil War in the Southwest. UNM Press, 2001.

This book contains 282 original letters, song lyrics, casualty lists, transcripts of witness testimony, original newspaper accounts. It's a supplement to the anthology published in 128 volumes "The War of the Rebellion: A compilation of the Official Records of the Union and Confederate Armies". The author is a historian-archaeologist. This book is an excellent source for primary documents and offers a fresh narrative of the civil war in the New Mexico territory. Many people think of the Civil War as a battle between the Union and the Confederacy. This book gives the Civil War history researcher a glimpse at the battles happening in the Southwest, as well.

Tips:

- Clear font like Times New Roman, 12 pt., double spaced
- 1 inch margins throughout
- Last name and page number 1/2 inch down, right aligned
- List authors in alphabetical order
- First line of annotation indented 1/2 inch

New York Sun column is as much about the romance of biography as it is about the American lives. Certain concerns resonate throughout the book: the American left's failure to reckon with Communist subversion, McCarthyism and Stalinism; the problematic nature of authorized biography; the history of American biography; definitive biographies; literary biography; the differences between autobiography and biography; the importance of interviews in biographies of contemporary figures; the differences between history and biography; comparative biographies; the virtues of short biographies and of biographies for children; the tendency of biographers to fictionalize and of novelists to biographize psychology and biography; Rollyson's own experience as a biographer and the way biographers treat one another's work. Too many biographers, he believes, evince no interest in the biographical tradition. Concerned only with possession of their subjects, their proprietorial attitude deforms not only their biographies but also the genre itself. If biography is reviewed badly, receiving hardly more than a summary of the subject's life with a perfunctory nod to the biographer, it is because the biographical tradition has been disregarded or discounted. This book, in other words, has been written on the behalf of biography, a genre that still awaits a full vindication.

Female Icons Carl Rollyson, 2005-06-07 This volume represents more than twenty-five years of writing about female icons and biography. Rollyson provides the bits and pieces that resulted not only in his biography of Marilyn Monroe but also in much of the work he has subsequently done on Lillian Hellman, Martha Gellhorn, Rebecca West, Susan Sontag, and on the nature of biography itself. This book includes a selection of Rollyson's New York Sun book reviews dealing with female icons such as Mary Stuart, Mary Wollstonecraft, The Brontës, Marie Curie, Harriet Tubman, Zelda Fitzgerald, and Sylvia Plath. Rollyson's writing about icons has provoked him to question the process by which selves are defined. Discovering the shaping mechanisms of the self is simultaneously a way of understanding how biographies are built. In the end, this book should be of interest not merely to devotees of Monroe, Sontag, and other icons but also to anyone curious about the nature of biography and the biographer.

Amy Lowell Among Her Contemporaries Carl Rollyson, 2010-01-07 This engaging collection of essays restores Amy Lowell's rightful place in the history of American literature. Carl Rollyson, author of several major literary biographies, corrects the distorted and often hostile accounts of Lowell that have appeared in biographies of D. H. Lawrence, Robert Frost, Ezra Pound, and other writers who collaborated with her in establishing the new poetry as an integral part of post-World War I American culture. For the first time, a well-rounded portrait of Lowell emerges to contradict the malicious and inaccurate reports of her public and private life. Especially notable is Rollyson's discussion of Lowell's friendships with women who wrote memoirs about the poet that contradict the sort of prejudice leveled against her by Pound and his circle of writers and critics. Rollyson's brief but revealing discussions of Lowell's poetry and his inclusion of the full texts of key poems makes this volume an authoritative introduction for new readers of one of the 20th century's important writers. And Rollyson's meticulous analysis of several literary biographies also makes a contribution to the study of contemporary life writing.

Lives of the Novelists Carl Rollyson, 2005-10 Is there a right way to write a literary life? In this collection of columns from the New York Sun Carl Rollyson explores the relationship between narrative and literary analysis Should biographies be written in the style and form of novels How to balance the life and the work How much literary criticism can a biography absorb into its narrative Rollyson proposes a number of apologies for biography including the thought that in the right hands the literary biography is a continuation not only of the writer's work and life In such instances there seems to be a symbiosis between biographer and subject In other cases biographies spearhead the rediscovery of important writers He rejects the idea that literary figures are not good subjects for biography because they are not men and women of action That literary biography is a kind of strip mining a pathography laying bare the subject's life to no good purpose is another canard this book demolishes The pieces here also expose the genre's weak points a proclivity for overstatement and excessive length the failure of biographers to build upon their predecessors work Rollyson invents a term biographology in order to discuss the biographical tradition

Documentary Film Carl Rollyson, 2006-11 Documentary Film Contexts and Criticism is designed to complement Rollyson's Documentary Film A Primer The films discussed in this volume include Zelig the Lumiere brothers documentaries Nanook of the North The Man With a Movie Camera Triumph of the Will Olympia The Wonderful Horrible Life of Leni Riefenstahl Why We Fight Fires Were Started and several Jill Craigie films including an extended discussion of Two Hours From London her controversial examination of the Balkan wars and the siege of Dubrovnik What sets this text apart from other studies of documentary is that it includes a wide array of student comments on the films and reviews very much centered in discussions of the documentary tradition In this same vein Rollyson has included his essay Jill Craigie and the Documentary Tradition exploring her relationship with John Grierson and other prominent documentary filmmakers This dialogic text captures some of the actual give and take of the classroom and the range of opinion that even the best critics cannot convey What should emerge from the reading of these comments are the different voices mindsets through which the films are viewed
