Graybill, 2013-10-07 Winner of the Labriola Center American Indian National Book Award One of the American West's bloodiest and least known massacres is searingly re-created in this generation spanning history of native white intermarriage National Book Award winning histories such as The Hemingways of Monticello and Slaves in the Family have raised our awareness about America's intimately mixed black and white past Award winning western historian Andrew R. Graybill now sheds light on the overlooked interracial Native white relationships critical in the development of the trans Mississippi West in this multigenerational saga Beginning in 1844 with the marriage of Montana fur trader Malcolm Clarke and his Piegan Blackfeet bride Coth co co na Graybill traces the family from the mid nineteenth century when such mixed marriages proliferated to the first half of the twentieth when Clarke's children and grandchildren often encountered virulent prejudice At the center of Graybill's history is the virtually unexamined 1870 Marias Massacre on a par with the more infamous slaughters at Sand Creek and Wounded Knee an episode set in motion by the murder of Malcolm Clarke and in which Clarke's two sons rode with the Second U S Cavalry to kill their own blood relatives Chasing Sunrise Emily Mah,
