Performance Measurement for Health System Improvement Peter C. Smith, Elias Mossialos, Irene Papanicolas, Sheila Leatherman, 2010-01-07 In a world where there is increasing demand for the performance of health providers to be measured there is a need for a more strategic vision of the role that performance measurement can play in securing health system improvement This volume meets this need by presenting the opportunities and challenges associated with performance measurement in a framework that is clear and easy to understand It examines the various levels at which health system performance is undertaken the technical instruments and tools available and the implications using these may have for those charged with the governance of the health system Technical material is presented in an accessible way and is illustrated with examples from all over the world Performance Measurement for Health System Improvement is an authoritative and practical guide for policy makers regulators patient groups and researchers American Journal of Public Health, 1997

Accountability Through Measurement Vahe A. Kazandjan, 2002-06-13 Accountability Through Measurement A Global Healthcare Imperative looks at the need for healthcare organizations to become more accountable for their performance The book discusses the necessary mindset structures tools and communication modes needed for healthcare to be accountable to itself as well as to external audiences about its own performance At the heart of this is the need for a greater degree of disclosure which in turn requires rigorous methods of measurement This book places the requirement of disclosure at the center of the accountability mandate and presents concrete ways in which performance can be measured analyzed communicated and used toward performance improvement This approach does not place the responsibility of accountability on the providers only but makes it a joint effort between the providers and recipients Role of the Department of Veterans Affairs in the National Health Care Delivery System United States.
