"Imam Zaid Shakir has compiled in this volume a number of his articles which address some of the burning issues that challenge all religious men and women in the United States of America and beyond. What is remarkable about this text is its message of hope. Deeply rooted in the Western and Islamic traditions, and bent on reconciling and profiting from both of them, Imam Shakir has written a text that could serve as a useful model for younger Muslims coming from a similar background. His reflections in this text have made it clear to me that the person who wrote this book is a man whose mental furniture has been properly re-arranged by his encounter with the Qur'an and the legacy of Prophet Muhammad. Muslims and non-Muslims will find much inspiration from the messages that are beautifully packaged for those who think seriously and critically."

- Sulayman S. Nyang, Ph.D., Howard University

"This collection of Zaid Shakir's essays is long overdue. For some years now he has brought a clarity of mind and feeling to substantive issues challenging Muslims today. It is good to see some of his fire-fly, lightning-bolt thinking captured in words and put between covers."

- Michael Wolfe, author of The Hadj: An American's Pilgrimage to Mecca

"The clarity with which Imam Shakir delves into issues such as the true nature of jihad and the relationship between Islam and the African American struggle leaves the reader with new insights and imparts him or her a satisfying resolution to many unspoken issues and hardened realizations common to many Muslims today."

- Yahiya Emerick, author of Muhammad (Critical Lives Series)

IMAM ZAID SHAKIR was born in Berkeley, California in 1956. He accepted Islam in 1977. Trained in both the Western and Islamic intellectual traditions, he is uniquely qualified as a commentator on current affairs.
