Transnational Perspectives on Feminism and Art, 1960-1985 Jen Kennedy, Trista Mallory, Angelique Szymanek, 2021-04-28 Transnational Perspectives on Feminism and Art 1960-1985 is a collection of essential essays that bring transnational feminist praxis into conversation with histories of feminist art in the 1960s, 1970s, and early 1980s. The artistic practices and processes examined within these pages all centre on gender and sexual politics as they variously intersect with race, class, sovereignty, indigeneity, citizenship, and migration at particular historical moments and within specific geopolitical contexts. The book's central premise is that reconsidering this period from transnational feminist perspectives will enable new thinking about the critical commonalities and differences across heterogeneous and geographically dispersed practices that have contributed to the complex and multifaceted relationship between feminism and art today. The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history, cultural studies, visual culture, material culture, and gender studies.

Civility Philip Sheldrake, 2024-08-19 Civility offers a thoughtful response to one of the most significant social challenges and public problems that we face in contemporary society, particularly in the Western world. The book identifies and discusses the critical public social values and virtues that we need to focus upon and actively to promote to counter these problems and overall to develop a healthy human society. To achieve an effective, inclusive, and just society, we must first reframe how we understand politics. What does politics mean, and how should it be practiced? Politics in its true sense does not mean something ideological, but rather it involves the service of the polis, that is, the human community. We also need to recover a robust sense of public virtues. The book describes some of the critical virtues and suggests how they may be cultivated. The overall argument is that in a healthy society, it is vitally important to concentrate more effectively on public virtues and values rather than simply to focus on encouraging material success or on creating efficient social and political systems as the main goals that we seek to develop in our societies. The volume focuses particularly on the public virtues of civility, having a sense of place, building community, solidarity, and responsibility, respect, and compassion, and cultivating discernment, that is, the art of how to choose well. The book concludes by offering reflections on the particular role of education, especially school education, and of public leadership as two central elements in reshaping a healthy society based on clear societal values.

The Pygmy Hippo Story Phillip T. Robinson, Gabriella L. Flacke, Knut M. Hentschel, 2017 Though the pygmy hippopotamus has been designated as a flagship species of West African forests meaning that by raising conservation efforts for a single species an entire ecological region could benefit very little research has been published on the animal They are solitary nocturnal and highly evasive and until recent developments in camera trap technology they were considered the least photographed large mammal species in the world The information currently available on this endangered species is scattered limited redundant and often inaccurate and no major volume exists as a resource for those interested in the conservation effort for the species until now Phillip Robinson and his coauthors provide a treatment of the natural history biology and ecology of the pygmy hippo along with a discussion of the rare animal's taxonomic niche and a summary of the research initiatives involving it up to this point The authors show the ways in which the pygmy hippo has come into contact with people in West African countries both in terms of ecological and cultural impact This creature has been the subject of local folktales and is treated as almost mythic in some regions Information on issues related to captivity breeding and zoos is provided The book is heavily illustrated with original photographs and anatomic drawings The project should be of use to conservation biologists zoologists and natural history readers and will be the definitive single volume account of an animal that the scientific community has designated to be ecologically significant to West Africa

Arius on Carillon Avenue Peter Carnley, 2023-11-09 In this book and its companion volume The Subordinate Substitute Peter Carnley unpicks logical knots and entanglements of argument found today in contemporary expressions of belief in the eternal functional submissiveness of the Son to the Father Trinitarian subordinationism and complementarianism is characteristically found along with associated conservative evangelical beliefs in the subordination of women to men and the theology of redemption known as the penal substitutionary theory of the atonement This theological package is energetically promoted amongst conservative evangelical Christians most notably members of the Southern Baptist Church and Presbyterians of the Westminster Tradition in the United States and Britain and very significantly amongst conservatively minded Anglicans of the Diocese of Sydney and elsewhere across Australia All the while the argument of this book is driven by the question of whether this popular phenomenon of contemporary evangelical Christianity is fairly and legitimately categorized as a modern form of the ancient heresy of Arianism

Born to Wonder

Alister McGrath, 2020-08-04 In Born to Wonder Alister McGrath a prolific Oxford scholar scientist and theologian explores the deepest mystery at the heart of life itself Life is a gift We never asked to be born Yet here we are living in this strange world of space and time trying to work out what it's all about before the darkness closes in and extinguishes us We are adrift on a misty grey sea of ignorance seeking a sun kissed island of certainty on which we might hope to find clear answers to our deepest and most poignant questions What is the point of life Why are we here And what is it about us that makes us want to ask these questions As far as we know we're the only species on earth that asks these questions and dares to hope that we might find an answer It seems that we are born to wonder not merely to exist From time to time all of us find ourselves overwhelmed by a sense of awe or mystery often when confronted with the beauty of nature whether it is a mountain stream or the vast expanse of ocean waters That is when we see a flicker of a grander vision of reality perhaps lying beyond the horizons of our experience It is as if for only a moment a veil is removed and we catch a half glimpsed sight of a promised land waiting to be mapped and explored This sense of wonder fuels much of humanity's creativity and its search for understanding
