Regaining Compassion For Humanity And Nature:

Regaining Compassion for Humanity and Nature Charles Birch, 1993 Birch convincingly argues that science and religion must come together if we are to heal and renew our planet Earth Revealing; Earth Healing Denis Edwards, 2015-05-15 The damage human beings are doing to the atmosphere the seas the rivers the land and the life forms of the planet is extreme and deadly It constitutes a crisis that demands all of humanity's wisdom ingenuity and commitment The whole human community needs to be involved in the response to this crisis young and old women and men farmers politicians gardeners teachers planners scientists engineers artists builders cooks and theologians In Earth Revealing Earth Healing the authors attempt to make clear the way in which Christian theology opens out into a theology of Earth revealing and challenges us towards a practice of Earth healing Earth Revealing Earth Healing offers a rethinking of theology as a significant part of the rethinking that the human community must do in its stance toward creation Aware that some theological attitudes have contributed to exploitative attitudes and to disregard for the good of the planet the contributors are also convinced that the biblical and theological tradition has resources that can be retrieved and developed as an ecological theology Such a theology can contribute to the healing of our planet The chapters of Earth Revealing Earth Healing stretch across a number of theological sub disciplines and related areas Among the perspectives from the Christian theological tradition there are reflections on the theology of the Trinity Christology Christian anthropology the theology of the Holy Spirit and contemporary feminist theology There are also more general philosophical and cultural perspectives including discussions of place and of landscape traditions Finally there are practical perspectives including discussions of globalization the challenge of suffering and bioethics Essays and contributors are The Landscape Tradition A Broader Vision for Ecotheology by Stephen Downs Globalization and Ecology by Christine Burke IBVM For Your Immortal Spirit Is in All Things The Holy Spirit in Creation by Denis Edwards Enfleshing the Human An Earth Revealing Earth Healing Christology by Duncan Reid God's Shattering Otherness The Trinity and Earth's Healing by Patricia Fox RSM Embracing Unloveliness Exploring Theology from the Dung heap by Lorna Hallahan Up Close and Personal In the End Matter Matters by Anthony Lowes The Relationship Quilt Feminism and the Healing of Nature by Lucy Larkin A Timely Reminder Humanity and Ecology in the Light of Christian Hope by Gregory Brett CM Ecotheology as a Plea for Place by Phillip Tolliday Situating Humanity Theological Anthropology in the Context of the Ecological Crisis by James McEvoy and Bioethics Ecology and Theology by Andrew Dutney Denis Edwards is a senior lecturer in systematic theology at Catholic Theological College and in the ecumenical consortium at the Adelaide College of Divinity Flinders University He has written other books on theology and is a priest of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Adelaide Encyclopedia of Religion and Nature Bron Taylor, Jeffrey Kaplan, 2005-01-01 No Marketing Blurb Climate Change and Sustainable Agro-ecology in Global Drylands Adel El-Beltagy, Rattan Lal, Kauser Malik, 2024-10-30 Drylands a home for nearly 2.5 billion people are highly vulnerable to anthropogenic climate change and dryland area may expand to 50% of the Earth's surface by 2100. Climate change may aggravate the prevalence of undernutrition and malnutrition because of adverse effects on quantity and quality of food production in these regions. This book takes a holistic approach to sustainable management of drylands to make agriculture drought resilient. Eminent scientists from around the world share their knowledge and experiences for adaptation and mitigation of the anthropogenic climate change through innovation in sustainable management of water, soil, crops, livestock and fisheries. They anticipate that climate change will have major impacts on agro ecosystems which requires continuous dynamic assessments globally, regionally and at the local level where the major action of adaptation would have to occur. The assessment will require international cooperation and national capacity building. This book emphasizes approaches such as smart and precision agriculture, conservation agriculture and new innovation and technology as tools for adaptation and mitigation. Several chapters are devoted to the human dimensions and policy considerations with emphasis on enhancing coping and adaptive capacity. This book addresses the picture after COP27 including loss and damage governance and finance. This work will be valuable to students and researchers in agroecology, climate change science and dryland agriculture.

Re-writing Spatiality Britta Kuhlenbeck, 2010. The objective of this project is to encourage new ways of thinking about the meaning and significance of space. It follows a desire that has been expressed and theorized by Henri Lefebvre and by extension Edward W Soja to remove Spatiality from the margin of the Triad of Being and to bring it into the Triad alongside with and of at least equal significance to Historicity and Sociality. The thesis focuses on how space of the Pilbara region in Western Australia is produced in contemporary Australian writing, film, art and through lived experience. The thesis argues for an understanding of space as essentially dynamic.

Creation as Sacrament John Chryssavgis, 2019-06-27. John Chryssavgis explores the sacred dimension of the natural environment and the significance of creation in the rich theological history and spiritual classics of the Orthodox Church through the lens of its unique ascetical, liturgical and mystical experience. The global ecological crisis affecting humanity's air, water and land as well as the planet's flora and fauna has resulted in manifest fissures on the image of God in creation. Chryssavgis examines from an Orthodox Christian perspective the possibility of restoring that shattered image through the sacramental lenses of cosmic transfiguration, cosmic interconnection and cosmic reconciliation. The viewpoints of early theologians and contemporary thinkers are extensively explored from a theological and spiritual perspective including countering those who deny that God's creation is in crisis. Presenting a worldview advanced and championed by the Orthodox Church in the modern world, this book encourages personal and societal transformation in making ethical and economic choices that respect creation as sacrament.

Theories of Sustainable Development Judith C. Enders, Moritz Remig, 2014-10-24 While sustainability has become a buzzword in discussions about the environment and development work on theories of sustainable development has received much less attention However theory is vital as understanding the origins and development of the concept is the key to achieving successful implementation of sustainability This book offers an interdisciplinary collection of research articles on the theories of sustainable development drawing on a wide range of subjects including history politics governance complex systems economics and philosophy It advocates viewing sustainable development not only as the establishment of a permanent globally practicable and future capable mode of life and economics but as a complex array of problems involving a wide range of social scientific and humanistic disciplines This innovative approach means that the book is oriented toward current problems not toward the established academic boundaries and it draws out lessons that are relevant for those studying and working in sustainability across the world This book will be of great interest to researchers and students of sustainable development and environmental politics as well as practitioners working with sustainable development in politics business administration and civil society organizations
