Higher Education Management and Development. Compendium for Managers Jeroen Huisman, Attila Pausits, 2010 Today as never before it is imperative that university managers possess the knowledge and the competencies necessary for leading modern higher education institutions Professional management enables higher education institutions to cooperate more effectively with partners ranging from local businesses to international enterprises and other stakeholders As higher education institutions grow larger and extend their reach into new areas and the functions demanded of them multiply academic administration and management become increasingly complex thus the need for skilled management and administrative personnel becomes more acute This book emerged as the product of the European Higher Education Management and Development EHEMD project a European multilateral curriculum development project under the coordination of the Danube University Krems and funded by the European Union in the framework of the Erasmus Lifelong Learning Programme Focusing not only on theoretical points of view but also on their practical applications as demonstrated in the accompanying case studies the publication covers the key aspects of modern university management The booklet is structured so that each chapter presents a particular aspect and application of university management and the entire volume reflects the core contents of the EHEMD curriculum Can higher education management be taught While we confidently say yes the answer needs some qualification

The yes applies because higher education management is no different from any other subject in the social sciences The qualification is that a sound pedagogical philosophy and structure need to underpin such a programme The fundamentals of the EHEMD programme are that it is interdisciplinary that it is practice oriented and that students learn from each other and also learn independently With a strong emphasis on Central Southern and Eastern Europe this book addresses management challenges in higher education today and in the near future Teacher Professionalism in Further and Higher Education

Jocelyn Robson,2007-05-07 The shape and nature of professional standards for further and higher education teachers are changing constantly This book provides a current account of developments and debates about both groups in an attempt to challenge strongly held beliefs Reform of Higher Education in Europe J. Enders,H.F. de Boer,D.F.

Westerheijden,2011-10-21 The volume Reform of Higher Education in Europe is published in celebration of CHEPS 25th anniversary All contributors to this book are working at CHEPS and bring their extensive knowledge of the deep seated reforms and changes to the field of higher education and research over the last 25 years The chapters are each devoted to a detailed policy analysis deeply rooted in CHEPS quarter century programme of theoretical and empirical research Some contributions cover key themes of concern since CHEPS early years including state university relationships quality assurance and funding Other contributions cover more contemporary higher education policy issues including European reform initiatives innovation the Bologna Process doctoral training and the Erasmus programme and debates around higher education institutions evolving functions including the university s third mission and the research function of universities of applied sciences What unifies all chapters is their recognition that policy success is dependent on smart implementation grounded in a comprehensive understanding of highly complex policy processes The book as a whole offers clear descriptions and analyses of how policy processes are implemented through co ordinated institutional and stakeholder interventions This volume seeks to enhance academic and policy maker understanding of Europe s evolving higher education system as it emerges as a cornerstone of the contemporary knowledge society The Routledge International Handbook of Higher Education Malcolm Tight,Ka Ho Mok,Jeroen Huisman,Christopher Morphey,2009-06-03 This volume is a detailed and up to date reference work providing an authoritative overview of the main issues in higher education around the world today Consisting of newly commissioned chapters and impressive journal articles it surveys the state of the discipline and includes the examination and discussion of emerging controversial and cutting edge areas Higher Education Pedagogies

Walker, Melanie,2005-11-01 What does higher education learning and teaching enable students to do and to become Which human capabilities are valued in higher education and how do we identify them How might the human capability approach lead to improved student learning as well as to accomplished and ethical university teaching This book sets out to generate new ways of reflecting ethically about the purposes and values of contemporary higher education in relation to agency learning public values and democratic life and the pedagogies which support these It offers an alternative to human capital theory and emphasises the intrinsic as well as the economic value of higher learning Based upon the human capability approach developed by economist Amartya Sen and philosopher Martha Nussbaum the book shows the importance of justice as a value in higher education It places freedom human flourishing and students educational development at its centre Furthermore it takes up the value Sen attributes to education in the capability approach and demonstrates its relevance for higher education Higher Education Pedagogies offers illustrative narratives of capability learning and pedagogy drawing on student and lecturer voices to demonstrate how this multi dimensional approach can be developed and applied in higher education It suggests an ethical approach to higher education practice and to teaching and learning policy development and evaluation As such the book is essential reading for students and scholars of higher education as well as university lecturers managers and policy makers concerned with teaching and learning

Refugees and Higher Education Lisa

Unangst, Hakan Ergin, Araz Khajarian, Tessa DeLaquil, Hans de Wit, 2020-07-13 Refugees and Higher Education provides a cross disciplinary lens on one American university's approach to studying the policies practices and experiences associated with the higher education of refugee background students The focus is not only on refugee education as an issue of access and equity but also on this phenomenon as seen through the lens of internationalization What competencies are called for among university faculty and staff welcoming refugee background students to their institutional contexts How might distance learning be considered anew These challenges and opportunities for institutional growth will be closely considered by this group of authors from educational leadership social work curriculum development and higher education itself They address key world regions and sub topics ranging from online education in refugee camps to the Brazilian and Colombian responses to the emerging crisis in Venezuela Scholars researching refugee education cross nationally often find that refugee education literature is parsed by disciplinary field This book in contrast offers a comprehensive multi disciplinary overview of refugee education issues around the world These perspectives also provide key insights for faculty and staff at higher education institutions that currently enroll asylees or refugees as well as those that may do so in the future

Feminist Pedagogy in Higher Education Tracy Penny Light, Jane Nicholas, Renée Bondy, 2015-07-31 In this new collection contributors from a variety of disciplines provide a critical context for the relationship between feminist pedagogy and academic feminism by exploring the complex ways that critical perspectives can be brought into the classroom This book discusses the processes employed to engage learners by challenging them to ask tough questions and craft complex answers wrestle with timely problems and posit innovative solutions and grapple with ethical dilemmas for which they seek just resolutions Diverse experiences interests and perspectives together with the various teaching and learning styles that participants bring to twenty first century universities necessitate inventive and evolving pedagogical approaches and these are explored from a critical perspective The contributors collectively consider the implications of the theory practice divide which remains central within academic feminism s role as both a site of social and gender justice and as a part of the academy and map out some of the ways in which academic feminism is located within the academy today

The Transformational Potential of Higher Education Inclusion Jesús Humberto Pineda Olivieri, 2017 In the field of higher education research one of the most fascinating observations is the consistent and permanent expansion of higher education systems worldwide since the end of the Second World War Undoubtedly the predominant approach to address these developments has been through quantitative analysis as well as international comparisons The following work examines the particularities of the Venezuelan context with the aim of identifying specific features of this worldwide phenomenon in this South American case Through a combination of qualitative methods the author proposes a biographical approach for the study of higher education inclusion processes which takes into account the perspectives and experiences of those who have been targeted by an ambitious higher education expansion process The most distinctive feature of this work would be its methodological contribution to the field of higher education research One could also argue that the ethnographic account of the Bolivarian Missions of education in Chavez s Venezuela is both original and unprecedented Furthermore the writing approach bridges the interests of both academics practitioners of the field and members of the general public Researching Higher Education in Asia Jisun Jung,Hugo Horta,Akiyoshi Yonezawa,2017-09-05 This book discusses higher education research as a field of study in Asia It traces the evolution of research in the field of higher education in several Asian countries and shares ideas about the evolving higher education research communities in Asia It also identifies common and dissimilar challenges across national communities providing researchers and policymakers essential new insights into the relevance of a greater regional articulation of national higher education research communities and their further integration into and contribution to the international higher education research community as a whole Education and Society Rachel Brooks,2018-10-04 This new textbook offers a wide ranging discussion of the key debates within the sociology of education Covering everything from policymaking and the curriculum to class ethnicity and gender and the ways that they and other social divisions intersect to produce inequalities this timely publication provides a much needed contribution to the study of education s vital role in contemporary society With examples drawn from such diverse contexts as Australian pre schools Finnish higher education institutions and English further education colleges the text presents students with an international perspective and encourages them to engage critically with some of the core questions that lie at the heart of the topic what is the purpose of education who decides what formal education entails and what impact does education have on both society and individuals Rachel Brooks s extensive knowledge of decades of scholarly work in education and sociology ensures the book is academically rigorous throughout while the final chapter on emerging educational research means it is fully up to date The text s accessible style is ideally suited to all those new to the topic and studying the sociology of education for the first time whether this be from departments of sociology childhood studies social policy or a range of other social science disciplines Supporting the Student Journey into Higher Education Wendy Garnham,Nina Walker,2024-03-08 This book will provide an in depth look at the development functionality and appeal of pre arrival platforms to aid transition into higher education including a range of provisions Ensuring a smooth transition into higher education study is increasingly seen as key to both retention and success both in the initial weeks of study and beyond Pre arrival platforms offer students a range of opportunities which might include the chance to familiarise themselves with the practices and policies of their new institution before teaching begins This book will explore these platforms from three different angles their development use and appeal to diverse audiences in higher education and case studies illustrating their incorporation into practice It will provide a comprehensive overview of not only the different ways in which such platforms add value to the transition process but also the way they embrace diversity and widening participation in higher education from the very beginning of an individual s higher education career With chapters written by individuals from a variety of roles in higher education this text will also provide the reader an insight into issues arising from the use of these platforms It will be essential reading for educational academic and staff

developers working with departments and their institutions to develop their support structure for new students as well as for those directly involved in widening access participation programmes Developing Your Teaching Peter Kahn, 2006-09-27 For new as well as more experienced lecturers this motivational book is packed with accessible and practical advice grounded in learning theory The authors show how to take a step back reflect on your current practice and take measures to improve it A wide range of creative and innovative ideas are explored including using feedback from peers and students turning your understanding into practice getting involved in support networks working with mentors using teaching to progress your career Mindfulness and Learning Terry Hyland, 2011-08-21 In recent decades education at all levels has been seriously impoverished by a growing obsession with standards targets skills and competences According to this model only a circumscribed range of basic cognitive skills and competences are the business of education whose main role is to provide employability credentials for people competing for jobs in the global economy The result is a one dimensional economistic and bleakly utilitarian conception of the educational task In Mindfulness and Learning Celebrating the Affective Dimension of Education Terry Hyland advances the thesis that education stands in need of a rejuvenation of its affective function the impact it has on the emotional social moral and personal development of learners Drawing on the Buddhist conception of mindfulness he advances a powerful argument for redressing this imbalance by enhancing the affective domain of learning Mindfulness and Learning Celebrating the Affective Dimension of Education shows how the concept and practice of mindfulness non judgmental present moment awareness and experience can enrich learning at all levels Mindfulness thus contributes to the enhanced achievement of general educational goals and helps remedy the gross deficiency of the affective emotional aspects of contemporary theory and practice The author outlines a mindfulness based affective education MBAE programme and shows how it might be introduced into educational provision from the early years to adult education with a view to harmonising the cognitive affective balance across the system Changing Higher Education in East Asia Simon Marginson, Xin Xu, 2022-02-24 East Asia is a most dynamic region and its fast developing higher education and research systems are gathering great momentum East Asian higher education has common cultural roots in Chinese civilization and in indigenous traditions each country has been shaped in different ways by Western intervention and all are building global strategies Shared educational agendas combine with long political tensions and rising national identities Hope and fear touch each other What are the prospects for regional harmony in diversity How do internationalization and indigenization interplay in higher education in this remarkable region where so much of the future of humanity will be decided Experts from Australia China mainland Hong Kong SAR Japan South Korea Taiwan the UK and Vietnam probe these dynamics with original perspectives robust evidence and brilliant writing Changing Higher Education in East Asia deepens our understanding of internationalization and globalization agendas such as world class universities and international students It takes readers further exploring the role of higher education in furthering the global public and common good world citizenship education
