Fourie, 2016-12-27 Volume One traces the history of Opel and Vauxhall separately from inception through to the 1970s and thereafter collectively to 2015 Special attention is devoted to examining innovative engineering features and the role Opel has taken of providing global platforms for GM Each model is examined individually and supplemented by exhaustive supporting specification tables The fascinating history of Saab and Lotus begins with their humble beginnings and examines each model in detail and looks at why these unusual margues came under the GM Banner Included is a penetrating review of Saab through to its unfortunate demise Volume Two examines unique models and variations of Chevrolet and Buick manufactured in the Southern Hemisphere and Asia but never offered in North America Daewoo Wuling and Baojun are other Asian brands covered in detail This volume concludes with recording the remarkable early success of Holden and its continued independence through to today Volume Three covers the smaller assembly operations around the world and the evolution of GM s export operations A brief history of Isuzu Subaru and Suzuki looks at the three minority interests GM held in Asia The GM North American model specifications are the most comprehensive to be found in a single book Global and regional sales statistics are included GM executives and management from around the globe are listed with the roles they held An index ensures that these volumes serve as the ideal reference source on GM The Auto Pact Maureen Irish, 2004-01-01 Canada and the United States signed the Automotive Products Trade Agreement Auto Pact in 1965 thus resolving a competitive crisis in Canada's auto industry and extending that industry's vitality for another 35 years until a decision of the World Trade Organization WTO in February 2000 determined that the Pact violated international trading rules Following an unsuccessful appeal by Canada to the WTO's Appellate Body the pact formally came to an end in February 2001 For policymakers and scholars concerned with international trade the story of the Pact presents a fascinating case in its own right The great value of this remarkable book however is its elucidation of the main issue underlying the Pact and its forced ending the relationship between international trade rules on the one hand and investment measures intended to encourage local economic activity on the other In this connection the Canadian auto industry and centered in Windsor Ontario directly across the river from Detroit the heart of the industry in the U S and offers an intensely concentrated sample of the triple nexus of investment labour and trade that lies at the core of economic development worldwide Sixteen expert authors both practitioners and academics here open perspectives on this nexus that are of profound significance for the future of international trade These encompass such matters as the following and the vulnerabilities of a local community dependent on trade and open borders and labour union tensions engendered by trade rule levelling that takes little or no account of national or local economic realities and implications for developing countries of the WTO finding that a production to sales ratio is a prohibited export subsidy and the impact of Mexico s role under NAFTA on the Canadian auto industry national and local regulation of government subsidies intended to attract investment and ongoing multinational efforts to create a multilateral regime to protect and regulate foreign direct investment and and the persistent failure of the WTO to reach a consensus on labour standards despite the clear provisions of major international law instruments All these issues and more are brought into sharp focus by the history of the Auto Pact and the implications of its demise For this reason this collection of insightful essays will be of incomparable value to professionals in every area of international trade The Auto Pact Investment Labour and the WTO was produced with the support of the Canadian American Research Centre for Law and Policy at the Faculty of Law University of Windsor I'll Never Forget My First Car Bill Sherk, 2005-05-01 In this hilarious collection of stories Old Autos columnist Bill Sherk describes in vivid detail the trials and tribulations of those brave souls who throwing caution to the wind and money down the drain made the fateful decision that would forever change the course of their lives They went out and bought their very first cars And whether it came from the showroom or the scrapyard your first car was your ticket of admission into the adult world Gas oil repairs tow trucks speeding tickets insurance and fender benders would take a vacuum cleaner to your bank account but you didn t care You were behind the wheel and on the road

Melting Pots and Tribal Enclaves Terry Morgan, 2022-06-28 Michael and Betta Dubinsky have recently moved to Canada from war torn Galicia They do their best to engage with the culture but have a hard time letting go of their own traditional values They try to impress their Ukrainian ideals upon their children David and Alina but find that they are becoming more Canadian as they get older and increasingly distanced from their Eastern European roots While Michael and Betta get used to their new lives Canadian Alice Reilly must deal with her own struggles She hasn t had contact with several of her siblings since they were separated as children but her search for them becomes even more difficult when she marries

Peter Evans and moves to Wales Alice struggles to stay positive for the sake of her children but when her mother in law s neglect and abuse becomes too much she takes her children May and Roy back to Canada Now fully grown Alina and Roy attend the same university where they quickly fall in love But can their culturally opposed families set aside their differences and embrace their children's love Don Mills Scott Kennedy, 2017-02-18 How Toronto s own city farms were crowded out First settled in the early nineteenth century the area now known as Don Mills retained its rural character until the end of the Second World War After the war population growth resulted in pressure to develop the area around Toronto and in a relatively short time the landscape of Don Mills was irreparably altered Today the farms are all gone as are almost all of the barns and farmhouses Fields and forests have been replaced by the industries homes and shops of Canada's first subdivision In Don Mills From Forests and Farms to Forces of Change author Scott Kennedy remembers Don Mills as it was and takes great care to make sure that the farms and farmers are not forgotten Cadillac V-16s Lost and Found Christopher W. Cummings, 2014-02-12 For eleven years prior to World War II Cadillac defied the norms of practicality and produced an extravagant supercar a 16 cylinder luxury automobile that could be tailored to the customer's every want Big thirsty and lavish it cemented Cadillac s place in the top tier of motoring magnificence Each of the cars has its own colorful and fascinating story to tell Driven by a life long love of the V 16 and an interest in the history of his own car the author has assembled more than 65 of these tales gleaned from interviews books periodicals and documents into a liberally illustrated book Each story is shaped by the people a particular car touched and the events they lived through together All are an important part of our automotive and cultural history Around Mulberry Stephanie L. Dukes, Essie N. Helper Morgan, 2008 In the 1840s pioneers settled on the picturesque lands surrounding the Alafia River With glistening waters that gave life to plush foliage and citrus trees gracing its banks the Alafia stretched westward before flowing into the Gulf of Mexico Forty years later phosphate was discovered in the Bone Valley area and miners began arriving in what is now Mulberry Florida The industrial activity of the town encouraged economic growth and soon demanded the need for a railroad to accommodate Mulberry's expanding lumber and mining trade In 1901 the town was officially incorporated bringing a respected identity and well deserved peace to the people of the area Named for a lone tree that served as a local mail drop the town of Mulberry was born The Wartime Letters of Leslie and Cecil Frost, 1915-1919 R.B. Fleming, 2011-04-07 The Wartime Letters of Leslie and Cecil Frost 1915 1919 brings to light the correspondence between two officer brothers and their family at home from 1915 to 1919 Despite wartime censorship Leslie and Cecil wrote frank and forthright letters that show how the young men viewed the war as well as what they observed both during training and from the trenches in some of the war s bloodiest battles The letters also deal with the war s political context including conscription and the Union government as well as social issues such as the emerging role of women the role of the growing middle class nativism and the use of liquor overseas R B Fleming the collection s editor contends that Leslie Frost s military experiences and hospitalization affected his policies as premier of Ontario 1949 1961 especially those related to medicare and liquor control laws Frost's government was the first to pass laws providing penalties for racial ethnic and gender discrimination on private property creating a movement that led to the Ontario Human Rights Code The Wartime Letters of Leslie and Cecil Frost 1915 1919 makes a significant contribution to military history and social history Fleming places the letters in context and shows the value of their commentary This book will be of interest to the general reader as well as scholars of military history and social history

J.P. Bickell Jason Wilson, Kevin Shea, Graham MacLachlan, 2017-09-09 Without J P Bickell Toronto wouldn t have the Maple Leafs A self made man who left a giant mark on Canada Bickell was also an industrial giant a wartime leader and a philanthropist a man whose legacy continues to this day The Consummate Canadian Mary Willan Mason, 1999-01-15 Samuel Edward Weir Q C 1898 1981 a man both loved and reviled with scorn was born in London Ontario Descended from pioneer stock with roots in both Ireland and Germany Samuel Weir possessed incisive wit exceptional intelligence and a passionate zest for any subject that caught his eye Over a period of sixty years he built an extraordinary collection of approximately one thousand works of outstanding art and sculpture This extensively researched biography of a talented yet quixotic lawyer who contributed much to Canada's heritage begins in the early 19th century and covers well over a hundred years of our nation's growth until his death at his home River Brink in Queenston Ontario Today River Brink is the gallery in which The Weir Collection is exhibited and housed
