decades Skelton's comprehensive study includes consideration of his work in films such as Hamlet 2000 Black Hawk Down 2001 The Assassination of Jesse James by the Coward Robert Ford 2007 and Brothers 2009 issues of authenticity in the film and screenplay Don't Come Knocking 2005 and the play Kicking a Dead Horse 2007 of memory and trauma in Simpatico The Late Henry Moss and When the World was Green and of masculine and conservative narratives in States of Shock and The God of Hell Lauded by critics in his lifetime and since his death in July 2017 as one of the most important and influential writers of his generation NY Times Shepard excelled as an actor screenwriter playwright and director Guardian this is a timely and important assessment of his work spanning the last three decades of his life Understanding Sam Shepard

New Wests and Post-Wests Paul S. Varner, 2013-10-03

The writers of these chapters are often working with changing assumptions about literary and media interpretations of an American West. Here we see critical approaches to a West that never was a West of myth so enduring that the myth dominates nearly all artistic representation about this place that never was. In this collection we see critical approaches to a New West, a West that is a state of mind, not a geographical place, but a mythic space with no boundaries and no political inevitabilities. These New Western studies accept the idea of a West that includes Canada, Mexico, Alaska, and in the case of the US, every geographic and historical point west of the historic founding settlements. The West we study today is a post-West, an idea of the West past the traditional views of an old West dominated by white US nationalism and gendered as uncompromisingly masculine. The idea itself of a single West no longer holds validity. We now understand that all renderings of the West are renderings of multiple Wests: Wests constructed by American nationalists; Wests constructed by EuroAmerican writers and filmmakers; Wests constructed by native peoples; or Wests constructed outside the geographical boundaries of the US. This collection presents an eclectic array of new scholarship ranging freely over the New Wests and Post Wests, dealing with issues such as the literature of a 1950s California West, eco-crime genre fiction, the West of Edward Dorn, and the Beat Movement, images of prostitution in California Gold Rush literature, European perspectives on film representations of the first peoples, the six-shooter, and the American West. German Westerns and Italian Westerns, The Authentic Death of Hendry Jones by Charles Neider, and films such as The Treasure of Sierra Madre, Into the Wild, There Will Be Blood, and The Last Picture Show. A unique aspect of this collection is the range of writers interpreting the American West in film and literature besides those writing from within the United States; five of the writers provide international perspectives from the United Kingdom and the Universities of Tunis, Vienna, and Rome. Each chapter includes a review of scholarship on its subject and an extended bibliography for further research.

The Methuen Drama Guide to Contemporary American Playwrights Christopher Innes, Peter Paul Schnierer, Martin Middeke, Matthew C. Roudané, 2013-12-19. Unrivalled in its coverage of recent work and writers, The Methuen Drama Guide to Contemporary American Playwrights surveys and analyses the breadth, vitality, and development of theatrical work to emerge from America over the last fifty years. This authoritative guide leads you through the work of 25 major contemporary American playwrights, discussing more than 140 plays in detail. Written by a team of 25 eminent international scholars, each chapter provides a biographical introduction to the playwright's work, a survey and concise analysis of the writer's most important plays, a discussion of their style, dramaturgical concerns, and critical reception, a bibliography of published plays, and a select list of critical works. Among the many Tony, Obie, and Pulitzer prize-winning playwrights included are Sam Shepard, Tony Kushner, Suzan-Lori Parks, August Wilson, Paula Vogel, and Neil LaBute. The abundance of work analysed enables fresh, illuminating conclusions to be drawn about the development of contemporary American playwriting.
