to undertake the journey but the lady persisted and he yielded In a month after I was examined and sounded by Hahnemann who smiled as he stroked my head and said I am glad you have come to me in time I shall cure you Now I had been examined by more than twenty eminent Allopathists Sir James Clark being one of them all of whom thought me beyond human skill but the old bald headed persecuted Hahnemann the great medical benefactor of mankind after an hour s examination of my lungs said I shall cure you After being under his treatment for eight months I returned to Scotland completely cured I may mention that the good old man for whose good doing to me and to mankind I have often felt grateful to God refused to take a single farthing for his advice and medicine although he knew that the lady who took so much interest in me was in opulent circumstances It was in the year 1839 that Hahnemann made his last contribution to the Materia Medica the preface to the provings of Arsenicum He says f The mentioning of Arsenic calls up powerful recollections in my soul Horn Times London
