Critical Study ,1935 Samuel Butler Gilbert Cannan,2015-06-26 Excerpt from Samuel Butler A Critical Study Outside art there is little in human life or institutions to show that men need more than cunning to maintain their ascendancy in the universal struggle Imagination is so rare that it would seem to be merely a surplus of mental energy in individuals of no immediate social value and in the long run no more than a balm to leaven the lump So long as men can satisfy their natural necessities and keep up appearances before their neighbours they are content and if they are bored they will avenge themselves in quarrels and cruelty The few individuals who are gifted with imagination are by the gift removed from the common life and incapacitated for it The very few pursue their creative desire regardless of it and take the surface happenings of life even love as they come Others escape from the ordinary stupid egoism of the human animal into a pride of intellect which is a more ruthless and a nobler egoism About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Samuel Butler Gilbert
