Religion and the Specter of the West Arvind-Pal S. Mandair, 2009-10-22 Arguing that intellectual movements such as deconstruction postsecular theory and political theology have different implications for cultures and societies that live with the debilitating effects of past imperialisms Arvind Mandair unsettles the politics of knowledge construction in which the category of religion continues to be central Through a case study of Sikhism he launches an extended critique of religion as a cultural universal At the same time he presents a portrait of how certain aspects of Sikh tradition were reinvented as religion during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries India's imperial elite subtly recast Sikh tradition as a sui generis religion which robbed its teachings of their political force In turn Sikhs began to define themselves as a nation and a world religion that was separate from but parallel to the rise of the Indian state and global Hinduism Rather than investigate these processes in isolation from Europe Mandair shifts the focus closer to the political history of ideas thereby recovering part of Europe s repressed colonial memory Mandair rethinks the intersection of religion and the secular in discourses such as history of religions postcolonial theory and recent continental philosophy Though seemingly unconnected these discourses are shown to be linked to a philosophy of generalized translation that emerged as a key conceptual matrix in the colonial encounter between India and the West In this riveting study Mandair demonstrates how this philosophy of translation continues to influence the repetitions of religion and identity politics in the lives of South Asians and the way the academy state and media have analyzed such phenomena Haunted America FAQ Dave Thompson,2015-09-01 FAQ Pop Culture Take a fast paced survey of the ghosties ghouls and associated denizens of the country s haunted history with Haunted America FAQ Tracing local ghost stories back to Native American legends and then forward through horror tales both ancient and modern the book revisits some of the best known haunted locales as well as some of the most obscure creepy places in America Delving deep into the cultural history of American hauntings Haunted America FAQ includes chapters on ghostly books movies and television Also included is an A Z of reality TV ghost hunts and a state by state gazetteer of haunted spots Ghost Hunter's Guide to Los Angeles Jeff Dwyer,2007-03-31 The renowned paranormal investigator and ghost hunter shows tourists residents and even nonbelievers where to encounter spirits in the City of Angels As useful to the paranormally curious as to locals and adventurers seeking new and unusual spots Ghost Hunter s Guide to Los Angeles shows you how and where to seek out the supernatural in Los Angeles and surrounding areas from Hollywood to Long Beach as well as destinations in nearby San Diego and Santa Barbara Suggested stops include familiar locations such as Forest Lawn Memorial Park Cemetery Catalina Island Grauman s Chinese Theatre Lookout Mountain and missions like Mission San Juan Capistrano Mission San Buena Ventura and more Many other suggested adventures refer to sights where ghosts of movie stars like Marilyn Monroe Montgomery Clift and Howard Hughes have been seen There are also numerous anecdotes and leads for exploring more obscure supernatural entities like the murdered waitress the ghost protester indigenous ghosts and many other seemingly anonymous spirits around the Los Angeles area The appendix is full of references for further exploration including a list of local ghost tours historical societies and museums and an exhaustive list of suggested books Internet resources films and national organizations relating to ghostly communications A handy sighting report form is included to assist witnesses in the case of an encounter Jeff Dwyer has done it again Easily one of the best Ghost Story writers working today You will never look at the City of Angels the same way Ray Couch Southern Ghosts Spooky California S.
