San Jose A Museum Of Reflections:

San Jose A. Duncan, Charlotte Berney, 1997-10-01 The Not-So-Still Life Susan Landauer, William H. Gerdtz, Patricia Trenton, 2003-11-10 Presenting interpreting and celebrating the world renowned and the lesser known California artists who have uniquely defined and redefined the still life this volume offers an exploration of the sensual pleasures the aesthetic challenges and the intellectual and perceptual associations of a century of art through the prism of a single genre BOOK JACKET The Art of Being Unreasonable Eli Broad, 2012-05-08 Unorthodox success principles from a billionaire entrepreneur and philanthropist Eli Broad's embrace of unreasonable thinking has helped him build two Fortune 500 companies amass personal billions and use his wealth to create a new approach to philanthropy He has helped to fund scientific research institutes K 12 education reform and some of the world's greatest contemporary art museums By contrast reasonable people come up with all the reasons something new and different can't be done because after all no one else has done it that way This book shares the unreasonable principles from negotiating to risk taking from investing to hiring that have made Eli Broad such a success Broad helped to create the Frank Gehry designed Walt Disney Concert Hall the Museum of Contemporary Art the Broad Contemporary Art Museum at the Los Angeles County Museum of Art and The Broad a new museum being built in downtown Los Angeles His investing approach to philanthropy has led to the creation of scientific and medical research centers in the fields of genomic medicine and stem cell research At his alma mater Michigan State University he endowed a full time M B A program and he and his wife have funded a new contemporary art museum on campus to serve the broader region Eli Broad is the founder of two Fortune 500 companies KB Home and SunAmerica If you're stuck doing what reasonable people do and not getting anywhere let Eli Broad show you how to be unreasonable and see how far your next endeavor can go Museum, 1977 Selections San Jose Museum of Art, 2004 Artyear 1998 Beatrice Herz, Paul Blanchard, 1998 ArtYear is the most accurate guide to exhibitions of art and architecture in museums the world over during 1998 In addition to up to date information on permanent collections curatorial staff opening hours price of admission bookshops and restaurants ArtYear offers advance notice of the most important events in Europe the Americas and the far East A special section of Previews focuses on major exhibitions and another Profiles takes a close look at new museums Art Now Gallery Guide, 2005 Radiance and Reflection Jane Hayward, Walter Cahn, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1982 Museums and Social Responsibility Kevin Coffee, 2022-12-23 Museums and Social Responsibility examines inherent contradictions within and effecting museum practice in order to outline a museological theory of how museums are important cultural practices in themselves and how museums shape the socio cultural dynamics of modern societies especially our attitudes and understandings about human agency and creative potential Museums are libraries of objects presenting thematic justification that dominant concepts of normativity and speciality as well as attitudes of cultural deprecation By sorting culture into hierarchies of symbolic value museums cloak themselves in supposed objectivity delivered with the passion of connoisseurship and the surety of scholarly research. Ulterior motives pertaining to socio-economic class, racial and ethnic othering, and sexual subjugation are shrouded by that false appearance of objectivity. This book highlights how the socially responsive practitioner can challenge and subvert taken-for-granted motivations by undertaking liberatory museum work that engages subaltern narratives, engages historically disadvantaged populations, and co-creates with them dialogical practices of collecting, preserving, exhibiting, and interpreting. It points to examples in Africa, Asia, Europe, and the Americas not as self-contained entities but as practices within a global web of relationships and as microcosms that define normality and abnormality that engage users in critical dialogue and that influence and are conditioned by and disrupt taken-for-granted understandings and practices of class, ethnicity, sex, gender, thinking, and being. Suitable for students, researchers, and museum professionals, Museums and Social Responsibility presents a comprehensive argument and proposes critical, reflective processes to the practitioner so that their museum work may more effectively engage with and change their societies and the world. — Mary Schafer, American Quilt Maker Gwen Marston, 2004-03-25

The story of the woman who helped create the modern American quilting revival — Excavation at San José Mogote 1 Kent V. Flannery, Joyce Marcus, 2005-01-01

San José Mogote, an early village and chiefly center in Mexico's Oaxaca Valley, was excavated over a fifteen-year period. This volume reports in detail on every Early and Middle Formative house recovered, including a complete inventory of artifacts, features, plants, animal bones, and craft raw materials by house, with extensive piece plotting of items on house floors and dooryards. — Panamanian Museums and Historical Memory Ana Luisa Sánchez Laws, 2011-05

Panama is an ethnically diverse country with a recent history of political conflict which makes the representation of historical memory an especially complex and important task for the country's museums. This book studies new museum projects in Panama with the aim of identifying the dominant narratives that are being formed, as well as those voices that remain absent and muted. Through case analyses of specific museums and exhibitions, the author identifies and examines the influences that form and shape museum strategy and development. — Amalia Mesa-Bains Laura E. Pérez, Maria Esther Fernández, 2023-01-24

Amalia Mesa-Bains' Archaeology of Memory is the first retrospective exhibition of the work of longtime Bay Area artist Mesa-Bains. Presenting work from the entirety of her career for the first time, this exhibition, which features nearly 60 works in a range of media, including fourteen major installations, celebrates Mesa-Bains's important contributions to the field of contemporary art, locally and globally. For over forty-five years, Mesa-Bains has worked to bring Chicana art into the broader American field of contemporary art through innovations of sacred forms, such as altares (home altars), ofrendas (offerings to the dead), descansos (roadside resting places), and capillas (home yard shrines). She expanded her installations from domestic spaces to include laboratories, library forms, gardens, and landscapes, focusing attention on the politics of space to highlight colonial erasure of the preexisting and still surviving cultural differences in colonized Indigenous and Mexican American communities. Many of these works offer a feminist perspective on the domestic life of immigrant and Mexican American women across different historical periods most notably the four part installation series Venus Envy which was created over multiple decades and will be displayed in its entirety for the first time at BAMPFA Standing at the juncture of cultural diversity environmentally centered spirituality culled from ancestral non Western worldviews and intersectional feminism Mesa Bains has been heralded as one of the most prominent voices in feminist Chicana art of her generation Valley of Heart's Delight Anne Marie Todd, 2022-10-25 This agricultural history explores the transformation of the Santa Clara Valley over the past one hundred years from America's largest fruit producing region into the technology capital of the world In the latter half of the twentieth century the region's focus shifted from fruits such as apricots and prunes to computers Both personal and public rhetoric reveals how a sense of place emerges and changes in an evolving agricultural community like the Santa Clara Valley Through extensive archival research and interviews Anne Marie Todd explores the concepts of place and placelessness arguing that place is more than a physical location and that exploring a community's sense of place can help us to map how individuals experience their natural surroundings and their sense of responsibility towards the local environment Todd extends the concept of sense of place to describe Silicon Valley as a non place where weakened or disrupted attachment to place threatens the environment and community The story of the Santa Clara Valley is an American story of the development of agricultural lands and the transformation of rural regions Kara Walker Kara Elizabeth Walker, Walker Art Center, 2007 Text by Philippe Vergne Sander Gilman Thomas McEvilley Robert Storr Kevin Young Yasmin Raymond Open to the Public Charlene Akers, 1994 Ms Akers describes nearly 500 museums from the southern San Joaquin Valley north to the Oregon border Museum Experience Design Arnold Vermeeren, Licia Calvi, Amalia Sabiescu, 2018-02-15 This state of the art book explores the implications of contemporary trends that are shaping the future of museum experiences In four separate sections it looks into how museums are developing dialogical relationships with their audiences reaching out beyond their local communities to involve more diverse and broader audiences It examines current practices in involving crowds not as passive audiences but as active users co designers and co creators it looks critically and reflectively at the design implications raised by the application of novel technologies and by museums becoming parts of connected museum systems and large institutional ecosystems Overall the book chapters deal with aspects such as sociality creation and sharing as ways of enhancing dialogical engagement with museum collections They address designing experiences including participatory exhibits crowd sourcing and crowd mining that are meaningful and rewarding for all categories of audiences involved Museum Experience Design reflects on different approaches to designing with novel technologies and discusses illustrative and diverse roles of technology both in the design process as well as in the experiences designed through those processes The trend of museums becoming embedded in ecosystems of organisations and people is dealt with in chapters that theoretically reflect on what it means to design for ecosystems illustrated by design cases that exemplify practical and methodological issues in doing so Written by an interdisciplinary group of design researchers this book is an invaluable

source of inspiration for researchers students and professionals working in this dynamic field of designing experiences for and around museums

Museums and the Paradox of Change Robert R. Janes,2013-05-29 Museums throughout the world are under increasing pressure in the wake of the 2008 2009 economic recession and the many pressing social and environmental issues that are assuming priority The major focus of concern in the global museum community is the sustainability of museums in light of these pressures not to mention falling attendance and the challenges of the digital world Museums and the Paradox of Change provides a detailed account of how a major Canadian museum suffered a 40 percent loss in its operating budget and went on to become the most financially self sufficient of the ten largest museums in Canada This book is the most detailed case study of its kind and is indispensable for students and practitioners alike It is also the most incisive published account of organizational change within a museum in part because it is honest open and reflexive Janes is the first to bring perspectives drawn from complexity science into the discussion of organizational change in museums and he introduces the key concepts of complexity uncertainty nonlinearity emergence chaos and paradox This revised and expanded third edition also includes new writing on strengthening museum management as well as reflections on new opportunities and hazards for museums It concludes with six ethical responsibilities for museum leaders and managers to consider Janes provides pragmatic solutions grounded in a theoretical context and highlights important issues in the management of museums that cannot be ignored
