Being-in-Christ and Putting Death in Its Place Miles Richardson,2006-09-01 Winner of the James Mooney Award of the Southern Anthropological Society In this bracingly original anthropological study Miles Richardson draws on forty years of empirical research to explore the paradox that while humans must die like all evolving life forms they have adapted a unique symbolic communication that makes them aware of their naturally occurring fate and through word and artifact they dwell upon that discovery Using the concepts of culture and place he illuminates how two groups Catholics in Spanish America and Baptists in the American South create being in Christ and thereby put death in its place The book combines biological cultural archaeological and linguistic anthropology a rigorous evolutionary framework and a postmodern dialogic stance to view humanity as inescapably a product of nature without sacrificing the interpretative social constructions that turn a primate into a poem Hard won ethnographic detail and moving religious insight make this an enthralling work      San Pedro, Colombia Miles Richardson,1965      Research on the American Republics United States. Revolutionary Social Change in Colombia James J. Brittain,2009-12-09 Although they are one of the most powerful military forces in Latin American history little is known about the Revolutionary Armed Forces of Colombia People s Army FARC EP This book explains why this political military movement came into existence and assesses whether the methods employed by the insurgency have the potential to free those marginalised in Colombia By evaluating the FARC EP s actions ideological construction and their theoretical placement the book gauges how this guerrilla movement relates to revolutionary theory and practice and through what tangible mechanisms if any they are creating a new Colombia
