The Routledge Handbook of German Language Teaching Ruth Whittle, 2024-09-16 The Routledge Handbook of German Language Teaching evaluates and addresses multifaceted multilevel needs of students and teachers within teaching German as a foreign as well as a second language through taking a transcultural approach Each contribution starts with the author situating themselves in the geographical and institutional context in which they teach as well as the way in which they teach for example in person or online This acknowledges the Handbook's internationally widespread contributors from countries with different histories in terms of cultural linguistic and educational diversity more generally and the teaching of German in particular The chapters reflect their voices and consider language learners as people who have their own identities Material such as plays poems short literary texts rap singing and drawing are discussed in this book as being influential for language learners from beginner level and beyond This book proposes that learning happens by both the teachers and the learners going on a journey and both changing the outlook on each other and themselves along that journey Alongside this questions are asked with respect to curricula and the relation between speaking German and belonging in a German speaking country This Handbook will primarily appeal to teachers and instructors of German as well as those training to become German language instructors Moreover the book will appeal to researchers interested in the linguistic and theoretical aspects of German language teaching

Tales That Touch Bettina Brandt, Yasemin Yildiz, 2022-09-20 Cultural texts born out of migration frequently defy easy categorization as they cross borders languages histories and media in unpredictable ways Instead of corralling them into identity categories whether German or otherwise the essays in this volume building on the influential work of Leslie A Adelson interrogate how to respond to their methodological challenge in innovative ways Investigating a wide variety of twentieth and twenty first century texts that touch upon things German in the broadest sense from print and born digital literature to essay film nature drawings and memorial sites the contributions employ transnational and multilingual lenses to show how these works reframe migration and temporality bringing into view antifascist aesthetics refugee time postmigrant Heimat translational poetics and post Holocaust affects With new literary texts by Yoko Tawada and Zafer enocak and essays by Gizem Arslan Brett de Bary Bettina Brandt Claudia Breger Deniz G kt rk John Namjun Kim Yuliya Komska Paul Michael L tzeler B Venkat Mani Barbara Mennel Katrina L Nousek Anna Parkinson Damani J Partridge Erik Porath Jamie Trnka Ulrike Vedder and Yasemin Yildiz
