Personal property law in Nigeria Mike A.A. Ozekhome, 2019 This book addresses core issues of personal property law in Nigeria from a comparative perspective It offers a detailed account of the laws governing personal property and the different lightweight reforms undertaken mainly through case law before the enactment of the Secured Transactions in Movable Assets Act in 2017 The book draws insights from the United States UCC article 9 being unarguably the first law that introduced the concept of modern secured transactions law and was influential to many common and civilian law systems in reforming their personal property laws Given that personal property law is fairly new in Nigeria and also in Africa in general the main aim of the book is to provide judges and academic researchers with a rich collection of tested solutions from jurisdictions that have experimented with modern secured transactions law for several decades The primary and secondary works that were referenced in the book have tracked the different epochal shifts in legal thinking and their significances This may assist scholars and judges in Nigeria to come up with bespoke interpretations of the Act and solutions to underlying problems on credit and security that will satisfy the local conditions as opposed to copying the unaltered solutions from the United States and other advanced systems

Security Interests in Personal Property Randal C. Picker, Douglas G. Baird, Thomas H. Jackson, 2009 This casebook focuses on Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code dealing with secured transactions in personal property It incorporates and discusses recent revisions to the Code which made the most significant changes in three decades The Fourth Edition includes early leading cases interpreting Revised Article 9

Towards Reforming the Legal Framework for Secured Transactions in Nigeria Chima Williams IHEME, 2016-08-16 This book offers a valuable guide to one of the most challenging areas of commercial law now frequently referred to as secured transactions with a focus on Nigerian Canadian and United States perspectives A debtor's ability to provide collateral influences not only the cost of the money borrowed but also in many cases whether secured lenders are willing to offer credit at all The book proposes that increasing access to and indeed lowering the cost of credit could tremendously boost economic development while at the same time arguing that this would best be achieved if the legal framework for secured transactions in Nigeria and of course any other country with similar experiences were designed to allow the use of personal property and fixtures to secure credit Similarly the creation priority perfection and enforcement of security interests in personal property should be simplified and supported by a framework that ensures that neither the interests of secured lenders nor debtors are hampered so as to guarantee the continuous availability of affordable credit as well as debtors willingness to borrow and do business The book further argues that in addition to the obvious preference for real property over personal property by secured lenders due to the unreformed secured transactions legal framework in Nigeria its compartmentalized nature has also resulted in unpredictability in commerce and the concomitant effects of poor access to credit Through the comparative research conducted in this book utilizing the UCC Article 9 and Ontario PPSA as benchmarks the author provides reformers with a repository of tested secured transactions law solutions which law reformers in the Commonwealth countries in Africa and beyond as well as the business community will find valuable in dealing with issues that stem from secured transactions

The Law of Security and Title-Based Financing Michael Bridge, Louise Gullifer, Eva Lomnicka, 2024-10-23

Personal property security is an important subject in commercial practice as it is the key to much of the law of banking and sale. This book examines traditional methods of securing debts such as mortgages, charges and pledges as well as so-called quasi security on property other than land, describing how these are created, how they must be registered or otherwise perfected if they are to be valid, the rights and duties of the parties and how the security is enforced if the debt is not paid. This fourth edition has been updated to incorporate recent political and legal developments including Brexit, The Edinburgh Reforms which have followed the United Kingdom's exit from the European Union, promise a thorough overhaul of the consumer credit regime. The Retained EU Law Revocation and Reform Act 2023 potentially affects the interpretation of EU assimilated law including the Financial Collateral Arrangements No 2 Regulations (FCARs). This edition further assesses the implications of the Business Contract Terms Assignment of Receivables Regulations 2018, taking pledges over electronic documents of title in the light of the Electronic Trade Documents Act 2023, the outlawing of ipso facto clauses by the Corporate Insolvency and Governance Act 2020 and the reduced scope of the EU Insolvency Regulation. The treatment of insolvency matters within the framework of the Cape Town Convention is also considered, as are recent cases on pledges of bills of lading when the carrier no longer has possession of the goods, the distinction between fixed and floating charges, equitable liens and the right of appropriation of financial collateral. There is a full discussion of the taking of security over digital assets and the relevance of the FCARs. The only full-length treatment covering both traditional security over personal property and also devices that fulfil a similar economic function such as retention of title and sales of receivables. The Law of Security and Title Based Financing is a frequently cited and indispensable reference work both for practitioners and academics.
