Treaties and Other International Acts Series ,1946 Rethinking Corporate Governance Alessio Paces,2013-01-17 The standard approach to the legal foundations of corporate governance is based on the view that corporate law promotes separation of ownership and control by protecting non controlling shareholders from expropriation This book takes a broader perspective by showing that investor protection is a necessary but not sufficient legal condition for the efficient separation of ownership and control Supporting the control powers of managers or controlling shareholders is as important as protecting investors from the abuse of these powers Rethinking Corporate Governance reappraises the existing framework for the economic analysis of corporate law based on three categories of private benefits of control Some of these benefits are not necessarily bad for corporate governance The areas of law mainly affecting private benefits of control including the distribution of corporate powers self dealing and takeover regulation are analyzed in five jurisdictions namely the US the UK Italy Sweden and the Netherlands Not only does this approach to corporate law explain separation of ownership and control better than just investor protection it also suggests that the law can improve the efficiency of corporate governance by allowing non controlling shareholders to be less powerful Cross-Border EU Competition Law Actions Mihail Danov,Florian Becker,Paul Beaumont,2013-06-18 This book written within the framework of a research project funded by the European Commission Civil Justice Programme identifies the ways in which cross border EU competition law actions can best be handled in Europe Employing traditional library based legal research methods as well as qualitative interviews with legal practitioners in Germany and England countries sharing different legal traditions and policy makers in Brussels the book considers how private EU competition law actions are functioning at the moment and how they could and should be developed The study proposes solutions for some of the most pressing practical problems and includes chapters by the following academics legal practitioners and judges Judge I Pelik nov General Court of the EU J Lawrence and A Morfey Freshfields P Lasok QC Monckton Chambers H Mercer QC Essex Court Chambers J Webber Shearman T Reher CMS Hasche Sigle Germany P Bos and J M hlmann BarentsKrans the Netherlands P Beaumont Aberdeen S Bariatti Milan G Howells Manchester D Fairgrieve BIICL J Fitchen Aberdeen A Andreangeli Edinburgh D Tzakas Athens Bar Greece S Dnes Sidley Austin Brussels F Becker and J Kammin Kiel University Germany and M Danov Brunel University European Financial Regulation Veerle Colaert,Danny Busch,Thomas Incalza,2019-12-26 Mirroring the long established structure of the financial industry EU financial regulation as we know it today approaches banking insurance and investment services separately and often divergently In recent decades however the clear separation between financial sectors has gradually evaporated as business lines have converged across sectors and FinTech solutions have emerged which do not fit traditional sector boundaries As the contours of the traditional tripartition in the financial industry have faded the diverging regulatory and supervisory treatment of these sectors has become increasingly at odds with economic reality This book brings together insights developed by distinguished researchers and industry professionals in a series of articles analysing the main areas of EU financial regulation from a cross sectoral perspective For each specific research theme including prudential regulation corporate governance and conduct of business rules the similarities as well as gaps overlaps and unjustifiable differences between banking securities and insurance regulation are clearly presented and discussed This innovative research approach is aimed at informing lawmakers and policymakers on potential improvements to EU financial regulation whilst also supporting legal and compliance professionals applying the current framework or looking to streamline compliance processes
