Seed Systems In Sub Saharan Africa Issues And Options:

Seed Systems in Sub-Saharan Africa Venkatachalam Venkatesan, 1994-01-01 World Bank Discussion Paper No 266 Seed production and distribution are important factors in determining the pace of agricultural development For a seed system to be effective it must satisfy the different requirements of each crop Presently Seed Systems in Sub-Saharan Africa Venkatachalam Venkatesan, 1994 Seed Policy and Programmes for Sub-Saharan Africa Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 1999-01-01 One of the major challenges facing most countries in sub Saharan Africa is the need to invest significant resources into strengthening their capacity to increase the availability of good quality seeds of a wider range of plant varieties This publication presents the proceedings of the Regional Technical Meeting on Seed Policy and Programmes for sub Saharan Africa Evolution of Agricultural Services in Sub-Saharan Africa Venkatachalam Venkatesan, Jacob Kampen, 1998-01-01 This paper traces the evolution of World Bank support to agricultural services particularly agricultural extension and research in Sub Saharan Africa It describes the Bank s experience with the implementation of national programs in agricultural extension and research and how these are evolving to face the problems of the future The paper concludes that participation of the beneficiaries in the design and implementation of programs is critical and will ensure the programs convergence towards rural development Sector Investment Programs in Africa Stephen P. Jones, 1997-01-01 South Asia has made much progress in deregulation and liberalization in the 1990s but it still remains one of the least integrated regions in the world However this general trend masks wide disparities among South Asian nations the larger economies tend to be more highly protected with low import penetration rates while the smaller economies are relatively more open If the current reform program continues the benefits of liberalization will translate into higher growth This report reviews the regions economic performance from an international perspective and the steps taken to increase integration especially in terms of financial integration increased foreign direct investment portfolio and capital flows and regional integration intra regional trade regional arrangements Chapters also discuss the economic outlook for the region and prospects for South Asian exports such as textiles and clothing Financial Market Fragmentation and Reforms in Sub-Saharan Africa Ernest Aryeetey, 1997-01-01 FIAS Occasional Paper No 9 Many developing countries have made dramatic progress in promoting private sector participation in their infrastructure sectors especially with the help of foreign investors However this has not been the case in Southern and Eastern Africa which have been perceived as relatively unattractive locations for investment This paper describes the state of infrastructure in the region takes stock of actual and potential projects in the various sectors and analyzes the main impediments to private investment in the region s infrastructure services Assessing the constraints affecting production and deployment of maize seed in DTMA countries of West Africa , Structural Aspects of Manufacturing in Sub-Saharan Africa Tyler Biggs, Pradeep Srivastava, 1996-01-01 Urban Management Programme Paper No 20 Reviews the specific actions that municipalities and city governments may take in contributing to urban poverty reduction The paper highlights example of issues options and constraints that urban governments must address in fighting poverty It focuses on municipalities and other city level government entities as a critical institutional level of intervention Other language editions available French Stock No 13814 ISBN 0 8213 3814 5 Spanish Stock No 13813 ISBN 0 8213 3813 7 Uganda's AIDS Crisis Jill Armstrong,1995-01-01 Examines the economic problems that arise when governments own and operate enterprises that could be managed by the private sector Despite more than a decade of divestiture state owned enterprises account for nearly as large a share of developing countries economies today as twenty years ago This report examines the economic problems that arise when governments own and operate enterprises that could be managed by the private sector It finds that such enterprises are often inefficient and shows how the resulting losses to the economy hinder growth making it harder for people to escape poverty Why have reforms had such little impact In an innovative study of the political economy of state enterprise reform the report describes common obstacles to reform and describes ways that some countries have overcome them Drawing on a rich database and detailed country case studies the report provides the most comprehensive assessment yet of a decade of divestiture and reform of state owned enterprises It evaluates the experiences of 12 countries some of these countries reformed successfully and some did not but all tried to improve the incentive structure by changing the contract between the government and state owned firms The report offers guidance for successful reform and suggests ways that foreign assistance can more effectively support reform efforts The countries covered in the case studies are Chile China Czech Republic Egypt Ghana India Republic of Korea Mexico Philippines Poland Senegal and Turkey Published for the World Bank by Oxford University Press Procurement and Disbursement Manual for Projects with Community Participation Gita Gopal,1995 Draws on the experience of Bulgaria to study the problems encountered in financing government operations in the transition economies This report describes Bulgaria s experience in addressing external shocks to its economy and large declines in the ratio of tax revenues to GDP The book provides broad coverage of the problems many other governments face in transforming their systems of taxation in the transition to a market economy Chapters discuss taxation and incentives government and households indirect taxation and financing of social expenditures Attention is also drawn to the implementation of a value added tax and to policies on fuel taxes The report facilitates an understanding of the differences between actual and optimal policies as governments seek to establish a framework for resolving their budgetary problems in the transition Policy Options for Reform of Chinese State-owned Enterprises Harry G. Broadman,1996-01-01 Annotation World Bank Discussion Paper No 335 Presents the proceedings of a high level international symposium on Chinese state owned enterprise reform held in Beijing China June 1995 This report includes five policy option papers presented by Chinese officials and one presented by the World Bank Group that makes recommendations for reform on the basis of the Group s international experience in this area Colombia's Pension Reform Klaus Schmidt-Hebbel,1995 IFC Lessons of Experience

No 1F This report reviews the experience of the International Finance Corporation IFC in its role as advisor and investor in privatization transactions during the past decade In pursuit of its mandate to further economic development by encouraging the growth of productive private enterprise in developing countries the IFC has naturally and increasingly been involved in supporting this movement The premise of the report is that privatization will always be partly based on political considerations including expected redistribution of wealth and the resulting winners and losers It discusses the IFC s experience from two perspectives as an advisor involved before the sale which illustrates how the IFC assists in the trade off between political and economic goals to conclude a deal and after privatization which discusses the resulting economic benefits The IFC asserts that its role in privatization is defined by the evolving frontiers of political commitment Within those frontiers it can help expand privatization possibilities by performing advisory assignments providing necessary investments and developing capital market institutions The IFC demonstrates that privatization strategies can assume many forms with few set prescriptions Other language editions English ISBN 0 8213 3447 6 Stock No 13447 Russian out of print ISBN 0 8213 3545 6 Stock No 13545 Spanish out of print ISBN 0 8213 3451 4 Stock No 13451 Land Quality Indicators ,1995 Spanish edition Reformas Laborales y Economicas en America Latina y el Caribe Examines key aspects of labor market conditions as they are affected by the economic reforms that are integrating Latin American and Caribbean economies with world markets Also available English edition ISBN 0 8213 3348 8 Stock No 13348 Portuguese edition ISBN 0 8213 3502 2 Stock No 13502 Reforming the Energy Sector in Transition Economies Dale Gray,1995-01-01 World Development Report 1995 Workers in an Integrating World addresses labor and employment issues that are important for South Asia Expanding employment and increasing the remuneration of workers are essential to poverty alleviation which is the primary objective of all countries in the region This regional perspective examines ways in which workers in South Asia can benefit from greater integration of the global economy through improving their skills or cushioning their transition to new jobs The paper emphasizes that governments need to develop a framework for labor policies that defines the rights of employers workers and labor unions and the framework for collective bargaining and settlement of disputes Liberalization will lead to market based development which is the best way to raise workers living standards it encourages firms and workers to invest in physical capital new technologies and skills Case Studies in War-to-peace Transition Nat J. Colletta,Markus Kostner,Ingo Wiederhofer,1996 World Bank Discussion Paper No 331 With the assistance of Emilio Mondo Taimi Sitari and Tadesse A Woldu Provides a detailed analysis of the intricate nature of the political economic and sociocultural issues that arise during the transition from war to peace in Ethiopia Namibia and Uganda These countries offer a unique range of conditions and program models as well as a variety of successes and failures from which to learn A recently released overview The Transition from War to Peace in Sub Saharan Africa Stock no 13581 ISBN 0 8213 3581 2 is based on these country studies and a synthesis of reports of demobilization and reintegration programs in several other countries Measurement of
