Long Walks and Intimate Talks Grace Paley, 1991 This first collaboration of two long time feminist and antiwar activists is a wonderful melding of word and image that creates a powerful call for world peace Paley's poems and short fiction and William's vivid watercolors depict the beauty and dignity of ordinary lives from El Salvador to the Bronx from New Hampshire to Vietnam Scenes and stories of domestic life solitude and nature are interspersed with heart wrenching images of women widowed and children crippled by war and incarcerated by urban poverty Here too are stories and paintings of protest joyous and defiant

Literary Sisterhoods Deborah Heller, 2005-02-11 Building on scholarship such as feminist criticism that has contributed to an awareness of the distinctive perspectives on female experience revealed in women's writing Heller reveals how women authors construct their female protagonists' quests for creative self expression By situating these narrative journeys in their own times and cultures Literary Sisterhoods shows how they contribute to a common tradition that speaks to readers today

Traumatism Realism Michael Rothberg, 2000-08-10 How to approach the Holocaust and its relationship to late twentieth century society While some stress the impossibility of comprehending this event others attempt representations in forms as different as the nonfiction novel and Hollywood blockbuster Schindler's List the documentary Shoah and the comic book Maus This problem is at the center of Michael Rothberg's book a focused account of the psychic intellectual and cultural aftermath of the Holocaust Drawing on a wide range of texts Michael Rothberg puts forth an overarching framework for understanding representations of the Holocaust Through close readings of such writers and thinkers as Theodor Adorno Maurice Blanchot Ruth Kluger Charlotte Delbo Art Spiegelman and Philip Roth and an examination of films by Steven Spielberg and Claude Lanzmann Rothberg demonstrates how the Holocaust as a traumatic event makes three fundamental demands on representation a demand for documentation a demand for reflection on the limits of representation and a demand for engagement with the public sphere and commodity culture As it establishes new grounding for Holocaust studies his book provides a new understanding of realism modernism and postmodernism as responses to the demands of history

Untimely Interventions Leigh Ross Chambers, 2009-12-22 As atrocity has become characteristic of modern history testimonial writing has become a major twentieth century genre Untimely Interventions relates testimonial writing or witnessing to the cultural situation of aftermath exploring ways in which a culture can be haunted by its own history Ross Chambers argues that culture produces itself as civilized by denying the forms of collective violence and other traumatic experience that it cannot control In the context of such denial personal accounts of collective disaster can function as a form of counter denial By investigating a range of writing on AIDS the First World War and the Holocaust Chambers shows how such writing produces a rhetorical effect of haunting as it seeks to describe the reality of those experiences culture renders unspeakable Ross Chambers is Professor of Romance Languages at the University of Michigan His other books include Facing It AIDS Diaries and the Death of the Author
