The Ancient Scriptures and the Modern Jew David Baron, 1900 The Longest Silence Thomas McGuane, 2000 From the highly acclaimed author of Ninety Two in the Shade and Nothing But Blue Skies comes this collection of 33 exquisite essays borne of a lifetime spent fishing everywhere from Montana to Iceland The Visible and Invisible Group

Yvonne M. Agazarian, 2018-04-17 Understanding the psychodynamics of groups has derived from the two separate strands of theory and practice resulting in two separate disciplines group psychotherapy and group dynamics Present day group psychotherapy derives mainly from psychoanalytic theory and Bion's early experiences with wartime groups and has been developed from the work of clinicians who practice group psychotherapy as a form of treatment Group dynamics theory and practice on the other hand have arisen largely from the work of social scientists like Kurt Lewin have been researched in the field and in the laboratory and have been applied to groups as arenas for leadership training and behavioral change The Visible and Invisible Group synthesizes these psychoanalytic and group approaches to group life and offers practical guidelines to the group psychotherapist The authors advocate the simultaneous use of two perspectives the psychoanalytic perspective for observing the visible group of people and their interactions and a General Systems Field Theory perspective for observing the invisible group as a whole

Tirebuck,1891 The Graph Music of Morton Feldman David Cline,2016-05-26 Morton Feldman is widely regarded as one of America's greatest composers His music is famously idiosyncratic but in many cases the way he presented it is also unusual because in the 1950s and 1960s he often composed in non standard musical notations including a groundbreaking variety on graph paper that facilitated deliberately imprecise specifications of pitch and at times other musical parameters Feldman used this notation intermittently over seventeen years producing numerous graph works that invite analysis as an evolving series Taking this approach David Cline marshals a wide range of source materials many previously unpublished in clarifying the ideology organisation and generative history of these graphs and their formative role in the chronicle of post war music This assists in pinpointing connections with Feldman's compositions in other formats works by other composers notably John Cage and contemporary currents in painting Performance practice is examined through analysis of Feldman's non notated preferences and David Tudor's celebrated interpretations Casting into Mystery Robert Reid,2020-01-08

Booklist Sit on Our Hands, or Stand on Our Feet? Roger Philip Abbott, 2013-01-07 The aim of Sit on Our Hands or Stand on Our Feet is not to present a theology that explains disasters In fact there is no such theology Nor is this work primarily for those who are responded to it is not part of the theological grab bag that Christian responders carry with them to use for the benefit of casualties It is more a part of the Christian's engaged practical theological apprenticeship prior to and during a response This book represents the role of the practical theologian who empowers the church community's legitimation and contribution in disaster response and who encourages individual Christians whose calling into particularly relevant professions whose natural skills and or professional training could find them placed in a major incident responding status paid or voluntary doing their work as unto the Lord It is a serious must read for any Christians who have hearts heavy with compassion but who are not sure what to do or why when disaster strikes
