Eighteenth-Century Fiction and the Reinvention of Wonder Sarah Tindal Kareem, 2014-10-23 A footprint materializes mysteriously on a deserted shore a giant helmet falls from the sky a traveler awakens to find his horse dangling from a church steeple Eighteenth century fiction brims with moments such as these in which the prosaic rubs up against the marvelous While it is a truism that the period s literature is distinguished by its realism and air of probability Eighteenth Century Fiction and the Reinvention of Wonder argues that wonder is integral to rather than antithetical to the developing techniques of novelistic fiction Positioning its reader on the cusp between recognition and estrangement between faith and doubt modern fiction hinges upon wonder Eighteenth Century Fiction and the Reinvention of Wonder unfolds its new account of fiction s rise through surprising readings of classic early novels from Daniel Defoe s Robinson Crusoe to Jane Austen s Northanger Abbey and brings to attention lesser known works most notably Rudolf Raspe s Baron Munchausen s Narrative of His Marvellous Travels In this bold new account the eighteenth century bears witness not to the world s disenchantment but rather to wonder s relocation from the supernatural realm to the empirical world providing a reevaluation not only of how we look back at the Enlightenment but also of how we read today

Close Reading with Paired Texts Level 1 Lori Oczkus, Timothy Rasinski, 2015-06-01 Teach first grade students close reading strategies that strengthen their fluency and comprehension skills Students will read and analyze various types of texts to get the most out of the rich content Their reading skills will improve as they answer text dependent questions compare and contrast texts and learn to use close reading strategies on their own The lessons are designed to make close reading strategies accessible interactive grade appropriate and fun The lesson plans are easy to follow and offer a practical model built on research based comprehension and fluency strategies

Picturing Fiction through Embodied Cognition Bien Klomberg,Theresa Schilhab,Michael Burke,2022-02-15 This concise volume addresses the question of whether or not language and its structure in literary discourses determines individuals mental vision employing an innovative cross disciplinary approach using readers drawings of their mental imagery during reading The book engages in critical dialogue with the perceived wisdom in stylistics rooted in Roger Fowler s seminal work on deixis and point of view to test whether or not this theory can fully account for what readers see in their mind s eye and how they see it The work draws on findings from a study of English and Dutch across a range of literary texts in which participants read literary text fragments and were then asked to immediately draw representations of what they had seen envisioned Building on the work of Fowler and more recent theoretical and empirical language based studies in the area Klomberg Schilhab and Burke argue that models from embodied cognitive science can help account for anomalies in evidence from readers drawings indicating new ways forward for interdisciplinary understandings of individual meaning construction in literary textual interfaces This book will be of interest to students and scholars in stylistics cognitive psychology rhetoric and philosophy particularly those working in the field of embodied cognition The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial CC BY NC 4 0 license

Nourishing Caregiver Collaborations Nawal Qarooni,2023-12-15 In Nourishing Caregiver Collaborations Elevating Home Experiences and Classroom Practices for Collective Care Nawal Qarooni invites us to step beyond school centric one off events and practices to create more authentic engaging collaborations with caregivers Instead of asking what families can do to support schools Qarooni asks how schools can identify and celebrate what families already inherently bring to their children s literacy learning Establishing this work in holistic teaching a pedagogical mindset that affirms the importance of loving the whole child through compassionate collective care Qarooni explores five critical literacy tenets by highlighting opportunities to listen for honor connect to and elevate family strengths while inviting them even further into our shared work and encouraging reflection around Recognizing the journey of process Celebrating the role collaboration plays within the collective Using observational literacy to read the world Advocating for the power of talk to grow ideas and connect with others Giving children choice to make self directed decisions With moments of memoir woven in alongside diverse family examples and classroom stories connected to realistic instructional practices Qarooni shows how all families contribute meaningfully to their children s literacy lives Discover how we can tap into those vast wells to support learning at home and in school while building positive reciprocal relationships across both settings With an afterword by En Comunidad authors Carla Española and Luz Yadira Herrera Nourishing Caregiver Collaborations is rooted in the simple truth that we cannot separate knowing our students from knowing their home communities and the people that they love This book offers a toolkit for connecting with families and elevating the intrinsic strengths that reside in every child's home Wonder Stories (Reading Level 4), 2000 Wonder
