Mrs Delaney Room 108:

Mrs. Delaney Patricia Mould, 2002-10 Do you have a favorite elementary school teacher How did you parents feel about her Mrs Delaney Room 108 shares the private side of a fictional Stamford Ct teacher who is typically loved and hated by many Sometimes thought provoking and sometimes controversial this novel is lined with hair raising twists that question society's values and beliefs It is a wake up call to parents who cross the civility line and reassurance to those who show respect Mrs Delaney Room 108 is a novel that shows teaching in a whole new light a light that can turn very dark When Jenna Delaney the main character announces to her third grade class that she is pregnant her entire life changes in a most dangerous way The rearranged classroom desks the missing hamster the hidden tarantula the threatening telephone calls and other chilling problems become more than just coincidence Could her stalker be the mother who throws temper tantrums Could it be the one who refuses to have her child do homework Could it be a jealous parent or staff member Teaching can be more than just educating It can be deadly

A Way Out of No Way Dianne Swann-Wright, 2002 An African American folk saying declares Our God can make a way out of no way He can do anything but fail When Dianne Swann Wright set out to capture and relate the history of her ancestors African Americans in central Virginia after the Civil War she had to find that way just as her people had done in creating a new life after emancipation In order to tell their story she could not rely solely on documents from the plantation where her forebears had lived Unlike the register of babies born marriages made or lives lost that white families Bibles contained ledgers recorded Swann Wright's ancestors as commodities Thus Swann Wright took another route setting out to gather spoken words stories anecdotes and sayings What results is a strikingly rich and textured history of a slave community Looking at relations between plantation owners and their slaves and the succeeding generations of both A Way out of No Way explores what it meant for the master slave relation to change to one of employer and employee and how patronage work relationships and land acquisition evolved as the people of Piedmont Virginia entered the twentieth century Swann Wright illustrates how two white landowners one of whom had headed a plantation before the Civil War learned to compensate freed persons for their labor All the more fascinating is her study of how the emancipated learned to be free of how they found their way out of no way Sands & McDougall's South Australian Directory with which is
