Vicente Aleixandre, 1993-03-03 Begun in 1939 barely four months after the close of the Spanish Civil War these poems by the Nobel Laureate poet Vicente Aleixandre were written during a period of hardship and despair In spite of his surroundings Aleixandre created the splendor of the shadow of a lost paradise that consisted of memory nostalgia yearning and illusion This is the first full English version The original Spanish text is included All Things Wild And Wonderful Kobie Kruger, 2012-10-09 In All Things Wild and Wonderful Kobie Kruger brings us further stories of her life in the Kruger National Park where her husband was a game ranger After eleven years in the remote Mahlangeni region they are transferred first to Crocodile Bridge and then to Pretorius Kop Fully at peace in the wild and lonely landscapes of the north Kobie fears she will never adapt to the relatively people populated southern area It takes time but eventually she is able to acknowledge that the move has shown her other Edens and has given her a store of new and precious memories Foremost among her memories is the unique experience of raising Leo an abandoned lion cub It is a fascinating and emotional encounter with the king of the beasts which brings her and her family equal measures of joy and sorrow Written with her usual warmth and humour and imbued with her love of the wilderness and all its inhabitants this new book is truly a celebration of all things wild and wonderful Keith Roberts's Pavane Paul Kincaid,2024-11-14 This book offers an in depth analysis of Keith Roberts s Pavane and explores why this work was instrumental to the evolution of the Science Fiction genre in British Literature In addition to a focused exploration of the individual stories and themes that make up Pavane this study also presents a commentary on the mosaic structure of this work and the impact this has on the book as a whole Through its discussion of themes such as religion technology and morality this text explores how alternate history plots can be used as a commentary or criticism of the current state of society

The Pain Mothers Must Never Expose: Michelann Parr,2024-07-04 In this collection contributors reject the narrative that suggests that the pain of mothers must never be exposed They allow their pain to wander outside the frame of the requisite pathos individual pieces reveal pain to be a complex and intersectional practice that encompasses denial and disenfranchisement where pain is birthed and named disorientation leading to a search for stable ground destabilization that inspires non normative mothering and discovery as an active stance that transforms intergenerational pain As contributors take up the challenge of unravelling their stories they reach for a life sustaining and hopeful shift in consciousness that allows them to listen to what pain has to offer without judgment to imagine and create a different future for themselves their children and the world and to let go of maternal pain and suffering as a way of being Readers will be inspired by raw honesty authenticity and willingness to embrace story as a gift to self

English in Southeast Asia David Prescott,2009-05-05 This book represents a new publishing venture in terms of its range of concerns with regard to English in Southeast Asia The chapters in the volume reflect the interests and themes of the annual Conferences on English in Southeast Asia held since 1996 among participating universities from nine countries Malaysia Singapore Brunei Philippines Australia Hong Kong Thailand Indonesia and New Zealand This is believed to be the first time that such diversity and coverage has been published in a single volume The three sections of the book cover topics which have been consistently discussed at the conferences during the last ten years The Varieties section features chapters on phonology dictionary making syntax code switching and the communicative strategies of English speakers from ASEAN countries The Literacies section focuses on ICT in English language teaching Information literacy bilingual and multilingual issues in Southeast Asia recent developments in English language teaching and education in Thailand and questions of heritage and identity with respect to English in Malaysia In the Literatures section the concerns are with new generation writings in English in Malaysia the literature read by young Filipinos the use of English in Malaysian newspapers in the context of general elections the discourses of Asian English newspapers in relation to notions like globalisation and global English and ASEAN English on Internet websites As a collection of work by experienced academics engaged in the issues germane to the roles and status of English in Southeast Asia this volume is an excellent resource for university students university teaching and research staff and university library collections

Rewriting the Word "God" Romana Huk, 2025 Innovative poetry philosophy theology and new sciences converge in the project of rewriting the word God In Rewriting the Word God Romana Huk examines the substantive connections between innovative poetry of the last century and contemporary theology and philosophy Along the way we encounter ten poets who have without abandoning their inherited or chosen faith traditions radically rethought conceptualizations of divinity human ontology and the real From the startlingly proto phenomenological encounters with nature by Gerard Manley Hopkins to the post deconstructive pursuit of oracular speech in Fanny Howe these poets have found inspiration in a wide range of sources from ancient religious texts to modern philosophical movements But what unites them is their willingness to continually change experiment and challenge the status quo both in their religious beliefs and their poetic practice Huk shows how these poets have used their work to explore ultimate questions of life and death meaning and purpose and the relationship between humans and materiality humans and other humans which for these poets sheds light on humanity's relationship with the divine She also highlights the ways in which they have engaged with social and political issues in their poetry to speak out against injustice and oppression Rewriting the Word God is a thought provoking and inspiring work that will challenge current perceptions of both religion and poetry from new positions at the intersection of faith art philosophy science literary theory and culture

The Central Italian Painters of the Renaissance Bernard Berenson, 1905

Made For More Hannah Anderson, 2014-03-20 Who are you really In an uncertain world we crave the security of knowing exactly who we are and where we belong But too often as women we try to find this safety in our roles and relationships our professional accomplishments or our picture perfect homes And as we do our souls shrink smaller and smaller It's because these things aren't made to hold us In Made for More Hannah Anderson invites you to re imagine yourself not simply as a set of roles and categories but as a person destined to live in the fullness of God Himself Starting with our first identity as image bearers Hannah shows how Jesus Christ makes us people who can reflect His nature through our unique callings She also explores how these deeper truths affect the practical realities that we face as women how does being an image bearer shape our pursuit of education our work and even our desire for holistic lives Because you are made in God s image you will only ever know yourself only ever be yourself as you find your identity in Him Find it now Through South America's Southland John Augustine Zahm,1916 Following the Conquistadores ...
