An Unsung Cat Safford Chamberlain, Hal Leonard Publications, 2004-11-09 An Unsung Cat explores the life and music of jazz saxophonist Warne Marsh Safford Chamberlain follows the artist from his start in youth bands like the Hollywood Canteen Kids and The Teen Agers through his studies under Lennie Tristano his brilliant playing of the 1950s his disappearance from public view in the 1960s his re emergence in the 1970s and his belated recognition in the 1980s as one of the finest tenor players of the post World War II era Through interviews with the Marsh family and friends Chamberlain offers an inside view of Marsh s private life including his struggles with drug abuse Detailed analysis of outstanding performances complements the personal story while an extensively researched discography and photographs reveal the public and private face of this unique performer In addition to the book Scarecrow is pleased to offer a companion compact disc released by Storyville Records The tracks on the CD provide a representative sampling of Marsh s best work while providing a historical overview of his development from the beginning track Apple Honey which is a private low fidelity tape from an NBC radio broadcast in 1945 of the Hoagy Carmichael Show to the final track Sweet and Lovely captured months before his death in 1987

Who was Who on TV Norman Chance, 2011-01-07 The information herein was accumulated of fifty some odd years The collection process started when TV first came out and continued until today The books are in alphabetical order and cover shows from the 1940s to 2010 The author has added a brief explanation of each show and then listed all the characters who played the roles and for the most part the year or years the actor or actress played that role Also included are most of the people who created the shows the producers directors and the writers of the shows These books are a great source of trivia information and for most of the older folk will bring back some very fond memories I know a lot of times we think back and say Who was the guy that played such and such a role Enjoy

Lee Konitz Andy Hamilton, 2018-10-10 Meticulously researched detailed and documented this long awaited overview justly establishes Konitz as one of the most consistently brilliant adventurous and original improvisers in the jazz tradition a genius as rare as Bird himself John Zorn Hamilton s work may well mark the inception of a format new to writing on Western music one which avoids both the self aggrandizing of autobiography and the stylized subjectification of biography The Wire An extraordinary approach to a biography with the man himself speaking for extended sessions The main vibration I felt from Lee s words was total honesty almost to a fault Konitz shows himself to be an acute observer of the scene full of wisdom and deep musical insights relevant to any historical period regardless of style The asides by noted musicians are beautifully woven throughout the pages I couldn t put the book down it is the definition of a living history David Liebman The preeminent altoist associated with the cool school of jazz Lee Konitz was one of the few saxophonists of his generation to forge a unique sound independent of the influence of Charlie Parker In the late 1940s Konitz began his career with the Claude Thornhill band during which time he came into contact with Miles Davis with whom he would later work on the legendary Birth of the Cool sessions Konitz is perhaps best known through his association with Lennie Tristano under whose influence much of his sound evolved and for his work with Stan Kenton and Warne Marsh His recordings have ranged from cool bop to experimental improvisation and have appeared on such labels as Prestige Atlantic Verve and Polydor Crafted out of numerous interviews between the author and his subject the book offers a unique look at the story of Lee Konitz s life and music detailing Konitz s own insights into his musical education and his experiences with such figures as Miles Davis Stan Kenton Warne Marsh Lennie Tristano Charles Mingus Bud Powell and Bill Evans Andy Hamilton is a jazz pianist and contributor to major jazz and contemporary music magazines He teaches philosophy and the history and aesthetics of jazz at Durham University in the United Kingdom He is also the author of the book Aesthetics and Music Continuum 2007 Joe Lovano is a Grammy Award winning tenor saxophonist His most recent album is Streams of Expression
