On Faith, Rationality, and the Other in the Late Middle Ages: Gergely Tibor Bakos, 2011-01-01 On Faith Rationality and the Other in the Late Middle Ages is an investigation of Nicholas of Cusa that seeks a deeper understanding of this important medieval intellectual and his importance for us today One of Gergely Bakos's primary aim in this study is to understand Nicholas of Cusa's important and underexamined dimensions of his approach to dialogue with Islam. The framework and the methodology that informs this investigation was inspired by the late Professor Jos Decorte (1954-2001), a Flemish philosopher and mediaevalist at the Catholic University of Leuven in Belgium. Bakos carefully expounds his method of approaching medieval thought in Part One and then applies and tests this method in practice in Part Two. The most extensive part of this study offers a sketch of the historical background of Nicholas's dialogue with Islam and investigates what possibilities this approach offers. All of this is placed in dialogue with two other mediaeval approaches to Islam: Thomas Aquinas and Ramon Llull. The final chapters discuss Nicholas of Cusa's project from a perspective offered by his mystical theology. The book culminates in an exploration of the possibilities of Nicholas of Cusa's approach by testing the framework of the study. Finally, the author evaluates the application of his own approach. Part Three: The study ultimately has two purposes: to contribute to a better understanding of Nicholas of Cusa's thought on the one hand and on the other to test a particular methodology and interpretative framework for the understanding of mediaeval culture.

Dryden has authored or edited over 195 books and established Europe's first Masters in REBT. While his primary allegiance remains with REBT, he has published extensively on CBT and the wider issues of psychotherapy. Dryden's pluralistic perspective on REBT comes through in such seminal pieces as 'The therapeutic alliance in rational emotive individual therapy', 'Compromises in rational emotive therapy', 'Adapting CBT to a broad clientele', 'Unconditional self-acceptance and self-compassion'. The Australasian Journal of Psychology and Philosophy, 1923. Marx, Durkheim, Weber Ken Morrison, 2006-08-11. the sciences Such an epistemological and ontological framework is also developed in this volume Cybersemiotics not only builds a bridge between science and culture it provides a framework that encompasses them both The cybersemiotic framework offers a platform for a new level of global dialogue between knowledge systems including a view of science that does not compete with religion but offers the possibility for mutual and fruitful exchange
