trace on the environment practice responsible camping ethics and cultivate a deeper respect for the natural world Out of Your Wheelhouse Collin Jewett, 2019-06 Out of Your Wheelhouse dives deep into the learning process in the context of new environments and experiences How can one succeed when they encounter novel challenges and accelerate the rate at which they do so The answer to that question constitutes a central theme of this book Also explored is the underlying philosophy of continuous improvement both personally and professionally Keeping the Light in Your Eyes: A Guide to Helping Teachers Discover, Remember, Relive, and Rediscover the Joy of Teaching Beth Hurst, Ginny Reding, 2018-03-29 The authors of this inspirational new book were on a mission While much has been written about teacher burnout and the day to day problems teachers face little has been written about how teachers who deal with these problems overcome them and continue to enter the classroom each morning with enthusiasm for their calling To discover such teachers the authors interviewed over 70 teachers in communities across the country to find teachers who in a profession characterized by pressure stress and little reward still find teaching an enjoyable fulfilling career The book includes over 150 teacher narratives of their real life classroom experiences The narratives provide unique insights into creating a teaching mission setting up a community of learners discovering the rewards of diversity balancing personal and professional time turning mistakes into excellence using laughter to create rapport with students and using discipline to create an atmosphere of trust and cooperation in the classroom From these inspirational stories emerges a vision of the joys and rewards of working with children and a portrait of the teachers who have made a difference in the lives of their students and a contribution to their community The quotes stories and advice written in the teachers own words are interwoven with practical suggestions for ideas to make the classroom an inspirational environment for students and teachers alike The Literacy Leadership Guide for Elementary Principals Tynisha D. Meidl, Jason Lau, Margaret-Mary Sulentic Dowell, 2018-10-31 For the past decade in the United States elementary principals have faced increased scrutiny Student performance regardless of student experiences district funding practices or societal factors have been the responsibility of the principal In a similar fashion teachers have been ridiculed and scorned As a result principals are left trying to create positive school culture evaluate teacher performance and guide and support professional development initiatives In the meantime teachers in many ways do not see themselves as professionals do not feel that they have autonomy in their classrooms and as a result may not have the same joy that they once had The goal of this guide is to assist principals and school leaders to cultivate a school culture where the principal is positioned as the literacy leader This guide will support principals to address define and create a literacy culture Most importantly provide insight to support principals in their quest to becoming primary individual responsible for bringing joy to teaching and learning as part of building school culture Beating Brain Fog Sabina Brennan, 2021-03-04 A brilliant new book Good Housekeeping Replete with research based tips this is a valuable resource for anyone wanting to know more about the difficulties of coping with brain fog Professor Shane O Mara Professor of Experimental Brain Research Trinity College Dublin

In this fascinating book neuroscientist Dr Sabina Brennan enters into a world so many of us can relate to yet few dare discuss. A must read Dr Harry Barry bestselling author of Anxiety and Panic and Emotional Healing. A real game changer. Finally a book that explains and recognises brain fog and that offers practical tips to deal with something that's very real for a lot of people. Do your brain a favour and read this book. Dermot Whelan comedian television and radio presenter Sabina Brennan has skilfully translated the neuroscience of brain fog for the general reader. Having experienced brain fog myself I found this book absolutely fascinating insightful and really practical. Sinead Moriarty bestselling novelist. If you complain of brain fog to a medical professional you're likely to be told that it isn't a recognised condition. But if you mention brain fog to your friends they'll know exactly what you mean. Fuzzy thinking trouble concentrating a sense of grasping for the right word feeling like your brain is somehow slowed down. In truth brain fog is not a diagnosis in itself but a sign that things aren't right in your body. In Beating Brain Fog neuroscientist Dr Sabina Brennan guides us through the science to show how our brains work and why we might experience confusion and anxiety. She offers tools to help you identify your own cognitive profile determining the causes of your specific symptoms and explains the simple strategies that can help you feel like yourself again. With brain fog now identified as one of the long term effects of Covid 19 there has never been a more timely moment to tackle your symptoms with Dr Brennan's unique 30 day plan. Beating Brain Fog takes your symptoms seriously and shows that you don't have to live with them. Things I Wish I'd Known Before We Became Parents Gary D. Chapman, Shannon

Warden, 2016-08-19 Dr Gary Chapman has helped millions prepare for marriage. Now he helps you prepare for kids. Things I Wish I'd Known Before We Became Parents has one goal: prepare you to raise young children. Dr Gary Chapman, longtime relationship expert and author of the 1 New York Times bestseller The 5 Love Languages, teams up with Dr Shannon Warden, professor of counseling, wife and mother of three, to give young parents a book that is practical, informed and enjoyable. Together they share what they wished they had known before having kids. For example, children affect your time, your money and your marriage, and that's just the beginning. With warmth and humor they offer practical advice on everything from potty training to scheduling, apologizing to your child and keeping your marriage strong all the while celebrating the great joy that children bring. From the Preface: Our desire is to share our own experiences as well as what we have learned through the years as we have counseled hundreds of parents. We encourage you to read this book before the baby comes and then refer to its chapters again as you experience the joys and challenges of rearing children. Dr Gary Chapman Engaging Minds in the Classroom Michael F. Opitz, Michael P. Ford, 2014-01-19 How do you motivate a classroom of bored teenagers, self-absorbed tweens or energetic younger students to learn? In this book you'll explore what Michael F. Opitz and Michael P. Ford have discovered about planning lessons that engage students and enable them to truly enjoy learning. The authors outline key findings from research on motivation and engagement and offer real life teaching examples from various grades. They show how to systematically propel students to enjoy using their minds every day and to view themselves as confident learners.
