Reflective Teaching Evidence Informed Professional Practice:

Reflective Teaching Andrew Pollard, Julie Anderson, 2008-07-08 Reflective Teaching is the definitive textbook for reflective classroom professionalism. It offers exceptional support for trainee teachers, mentors, newly qualified teachers and for those engaged in continuing professional development and performance review. Andrew Pollard's Reflective Teaching has been established for over twenty years. Each edition builds on that foundation and offers something new. This edition is enhanced by a new look, a larger format, fresh text design, children's photographs and additional illustrations, making the book more attractive and user friendly than ever before. New content to reflect contemporary innovations such as Personalized Learning, Assessment for Learning, Pupil Consultation and Every Child Matters. Updates throughout in line with new teaching Standards and Competences in each part of the UK. Advanced material to respond to the introduction of Master's Level study within many PGCE courses, the growth in evidence informed professional practice and more coherent continuing professional development. Research Briefings from the Teaching and Learning Research Programme (TLRP), the UK's largest ever coordinated initiative on educational research. Reflective Teaching is the most comprehensive evidence informed handbook on teaching and remains as ever both practical and accessible. This book and its associated resources have extremely serious intentions and contemporary relevance. We wish to support the continuing development of high quality professionals who can enhance pupil attainment and we also want to support new teachers in understanding the contexts in which they work and the significance of what they do. Andrew Pollard. Reflective Teaching is part of a set of integrated and complementary resources. Reflective Teaching: the core handbook for school based professional development. Reflective Teaching

Andrew Pollard, Janet Collins, 2005-03-04 Reflective Teaching is the definitive textbook for reflective classroom professionalism. It offers support for trainee teachers, mentors, newly qualified teachers and for continuous professional development. This second edition has been revised and updated to enhance classroom use. Reflective Teaching in Schools Andrew Pollard, Kristine Black-Hawkins, Gabrielle Cliff Hodges, Pete Dudley, Mary James, Holly Linklater, Sue Swaffield, Mandy Swann, Fay Turner, Paul Warwick, Mark Winterbottom, Mary Anne Wolpert, 2014-02-27 Building on best selling texts over three decades, this thoroughly revised new edition is essential reading for both primary and secondary school teachers in training and in practice, supporting both initial school based training and extended career long professionalism. Considering a wide range of professionally relevant topics, Reflective Teaching in Schools presents key issues and research insights, suggests activities for classroom enquiry and offers guidance on key readings. Uniquely, two levels of support are offered: practical evidence based guidance on key classroom issues including relationships, behaviour, curriculum planning, teaching strategies and assessment processes; routes to deeper forms of expertise including evidence informed principles and concepts to support in depth understanding of teacher expertise. Andrew Pollard, former Director of the UK's Teaching and Learning Research Programme, led development of the book with support from primary and secondary specialists from the University of Cambridge UK Reflective Teaching in Schools is part of a fully integrated set of resources for primary and secondary education Readings for Reflective Teaching in Schools directly complements and extends the chapters in this book Providing a compact and portable library it is particularly helpful in school based teacher education The website reflectiveteaching.co.uk offers supplementary resources including reflective activities research briefings advice on further reading and additional chapters It also features a glossary links to useful websites and a conceptual framework for deepening expertise This book is one of the Reflective Teaching Series inspiring education through innovation in early years schools further higher and adult education Reflective Teaching, 2005 Reflective Teaching in Secondary Schools Andrew Pollard, Caroline Daly, Katharine Burn, Steve Higgins, Aileen Kennedy, Margaret Mulholland, Jo Fraser-Pearce, Mary Richardson, Dominic Wyse, John Yandell, 2023-01-26 The book you can trust to guide you through your teaching career as the expert authors share tried and tested techniques in secondary settings For this new edition Caroline Daly with Andrew Pollard has worked with top practitioners from around the UK to create a text that is both cohesive and that continues to evolve to meet the needs of today's secondary school teachers Reflective Teaching in Schools uniquely provides two levels of support practical evidence based guidance on key classroom issues such as relationships behaviour curriculum planning teaching strategies and assessment evidence informed principles and concepts to help you continue developing your skills New to this edition More case studies and research summaries based on teaching in the secondary school than ever before New reflective activities and guidance on key readings at the end of each chapter Updates to reflect recent changes in curriculum and assessment across the UK reflectiveteaching.co.uk provides a treasure trove of additional support
