Kepnes, B. Koshul, 2007-08-06 The unique essays in this collection use the underlying allegiance to scripture in Islam Judaism and Christianity to underscore the deep affinities between the three monotheistic traditions while at the same time encouraging respect for the differences between the traditions to be preserved Reforming Rome Donald W. Norwood, 2015-01-16 Few people realize that Karl Barth one of the twentieth century's greatest Protestant theologians was among a select group of non Catholic guests who were invited to the Second Vatican Council 1962-65 to assist in the reform and renewal of the Roman Catholic Church In Reforming Rome Donald Norwood offers the first book length study of Barth's involvement with Vatican II and his significant impact on the reform of the Catholic Church Norwood examines Barth's critical engagement with the Roman Catholic Church from his time at the Catholic University of Munster to his connection with Vatican II his conversations with Pope Paul VI and seminars and interviews he gave about the Council afterward On the basis of extensive research Norwood amplifies Barth's own very brief account of Vatican II Barth himself often felt that he was better understood by Roman Catholics such as Hans Kng Hans Urs von Balthasar and Joseph Ratzinger than he was by his own Reformed colleagues This study written by a fellow Reformed theologian helps us to see why Bibliotheca sacra, 1892 The Reforming Treatises of Martin Luther Martin Luther, 2018-04-02 Address to the Christian Nobility of the German Nation is the first of the three tracts written by Martin Luther in 1520 In this work he defined for the first time the signature doctrines of the priesthood of all believers and the two kingdoms After the church made a strong attempt at drawing distinct lines on saying who had authority in the spiritual sphere and its matters This division of Christians into spheres motivated Luther to write on the three walls the Romanists created to protect themselves from reform Prelude on the Babylonian Captivity of the Church is a theological treatise the second of the three major tracts from 1520 In this work Luther examines the seven sacraments of the Catholic Church in the light of his interpretation of the Bible With regard to the Eucharist he advocates restoring the cup to the laity dismisses the Catholic doctrine of Transubstantiation but affirms the real presence of the body and blood of Christ in the Eucharist and rejects the teaching that the Mass is a sacrifice offered to God A Treatise on Christian Liberty is the third of Luther's major reforming treatises of 1520 It developed the concept that as fully forgiven children of God Christians are no longer compelled to keep God's law however they freely and willingly serve God and their neighbors Luther also further develops the concept of justification by faith In the treatise Luther stated A Christian is a perfectly free lord of all subject to none A Christian is a perfectly dutiful servant of all subject to all Christian Positivism; Or, A Direct Divine Revelation a Necessary Correlative of Humanity George Blencowe (of Barnet.), 1882 The Living Church, 1919 A Crusade Against the Turks as a Means of Reforming the Church James G. Kroemer, 2024-08-19 In 1513 two Camaldolese hermits Paolo Giustiniani and Pietro Querini presented the newly elected Pope Leo X a Libellus or small book offering a variety of suggestions for what they believed were needed reforms in the Roman Catholic Church Chief among their recommendations was a crusade against the Ottoman Turks and ultimately all of Islam In A Crusade Against the Turks as a Means of Reforming the Church Two Camaldolese Hermits Advice for Pope Leo X James G Kroemer introduces the pope who received the Libellus and the hermits who wrote and sent it Kroemer explains why the hermits believed Islam was a danger to Christendom and what their strategy was to cleanse the world of this perceived threat The Augustinian Friar Martin Luther is presented as one who also advocated church reform but questioned using a crusade against Islam as a means of attaining needed changes This book delves into the desire held by some devout people of faith who wish to achieve what they may consider religious purity at any cost even by force if necessary
