Turner and Constable Nicola Moorby,2025-03-11 Born just fourteen months apart one in London and the other in rural Suffolk J M W Turner and John Constable went on to change the face of British art The two men have routinely been seen as polar opposites not least by their peers Differing in temperament background beliefs and vision they created images as dissimilar as their personalities Yet in many ways they were fellow travellers As children of the late 18 th century both faced the same challenges and opportunities Above all they shared common cause as champions of a distinctively British art Through their work they fought for the recognition and appreciation of landscape painting and in doing so ensured their reputations were forever intertwined and interlinked Nicola Moorby offers us a fresh perspective on two extraordinary artists uncovering the layers of fiction that have embellished and disguised their greatest achievements For Turner it is also the story of the triumph of landscape painting

Dobbs-Allsopp, 2015-08-26 On Biblical Poetry takes a fresh look at the nature of biblical Hebrew poetry beyond its currently best known feature parallelism F W Dobbs Allsopp argues that biblical poetry is in most respects just like any other verse tradition and therefore biblical poems should be read and interpreted like other poems using the same critical tools and with the same kinds of guiding assumptions in place He offers a series of programmatic essays on major facets of biblical verse each aspiring to alter currently regnant conceptualizations in the field and to show that attention to aspects of prosody rhythm lineation and the like allied with close reading can yield interesting valuable and even pleasurable interpretations What distinguishes the verse of the Bible says Dobbs Allsopp is its historicity and cultural specificity those peculiar encrustations and encumbrances that typify all human artifacts Both the literary and the historical then are in view throughout The concluding essay elaborates a close reading of Psalm 133 This chapter enacts the final movement to the set of literary and historical arguments mounted throughout the volume an example of the holistic staging which Dobbs Allsopp argues is much needed in the field of Biblical Studies The American Hereford Record and
