Bosia, Sandra M.

McEvoy, Momin Rahman, 2020 Struggles for LGBT rights and the security of sexual and gender minorities are ongoing urgent concerns across the world For students scholars and activists who work on these and related issues this handbook provides a unique interdisciplinary resource In chapters by both emerging and senior scholars the Oxford Handbook of Global LGBT and Sexual Diversity Politics introduces key concepts in LGBT political studies and queer theory Additionally the handbook offers historical geographic and topical case studies contextualized within theoretical frameworks from the sociology of sexualities critical race studies postcolonialism indigenous theories social movement theory and international relations theory It provides readers with up to date empirical material and critical assessments of the analytical significance commonalities and differences of global LGBT politics The forward looking analysis of state practice transnational networks and historical context presents crucial perspectives and opens new avenues for debate dialogue and theory Beholding Beauty Domenico Ingenito, 2020-12-29 Beholding Beauty Sa di of Shiraz and the Aesthetics of Desire in Medieval Persian Poetry explores the relationship between sexuality politics and spirituality in the lyrics of Sa di Shirazi d 1292 CE one of the most revered masters of classical Persian literature Relying on a variety of sources including unstudied manuscripts Domenico Ingenito presents the so called inimitable smoothness of Sa di s lyric style as a serene yet multifaceted window into the uncanny beauty of the world the human body and the realm of the unseen The book constitutes the first attempt to study Sa di s lyric meditations on beauty in the context of the major artistic scientific and intellectual trends of his time By charting unexplored connections between Islamic philosophy and mysticism obscene verses and courtly ideals of love Ingenito approaches Sa di s literary genius from the perspective of sacred homoeroticism and the psychology of performative lyricism in their historical context White Gold Susan Falls, 2017-09-01 Women have shared breast milk for eons but in White Gold Susan Falls shows how the meanings of capitalism technology motherhood and risk can be understood against the backdrop of an emerging practice in which donors and recipients of breast milk are connected through social media in the southern United States Drawing on her own experience as a participant Falls describes the sharing community She also presents narratives from donors doulas medical professionals and recipients to provide a holistic ethnographic account Situating her subject within cross cultural comparisons of historically shifting attitudes about breast milk Falls shows how sharing white gold seen as a scarce valuable even mysterious substance is a mode of enacting parenthood gender and political values Though breast milk is increasingly being commodified Falls argues that sharing is a powerful and empowering practice Far from uniform participants may be like minded about parenting but not other issues so their acquaintanceships add new textures to the body politic In this interdisciplinary account White Gold shows how sharing simultaneously reproduces the capitalist values that it disrupts while encouraging community making between strangers Gender in Amazonia and Melanesia Thomas A. Gregor, Donald F. Tuzin, 2001-11-01 One of the great riddles of cultural history is the remarkable parallel that exists between the peoples of Amazonia and those of Melanesia Although the two regions are separated by half a world in distance and at least 40 000 years of history their cultures nonetheless reveal striking similarities in the areas of sex and gender In both Amazonia and Melanesia male female differences infuse social organization and self conception They are the core of religion symbolism and cosmology and they permeate ideas about body imagery procreation growth men s cults and rituals of initiation The contributors to this innovative volume illuminate the various ways in which sex and gender are elaborated obsessed over and internalized shaping subjective experiences common to entire cultural regions and beyond Through comparison of the life ways of Melanesia and Amazonia the authors expand the study of gender as well as the comparative method in anthropology in new and rewarding directions

Sex Appeal Paul Abramson,2010-02-02 An epidemic of sexually transmitted infections and sexual violence is upon us Political interests are overriding sexual freedom in the name of morality Marriages are just as likely to fail as they are to succeed Why in a time of unprecedented personal liberties and medical knowledge are so many Americans so uncertain about what constitutes ethical sexual behavior Sex Appeal is neither a moralistic screed nor a self indulgent guide to sexual utopia Instead it charts a thoughtful course between extremes to present six ethical principles for sexual health and happiness do no harm celebrate sex be careful know yourself speak up and speak out and throw no stones Sex Appeal elaborates upon each of these principles asserting that sex can be fun safe and life enhancing if approached in the right spirit and with the information necessary to make wise sexual choices Providing clear guidelines for individuals seeking answers to their own personal questions about sex the book also connects these questions to larger issues such as how we as a society can reduce levels of sexual harm and sexually transmitted infections and how everyday individual choices can support this effort Persuasive and eminently readable Sex Appeal offers a welcome dose of clarity and common sense to today's most pressing sexual issues

The Mana of Mass Society William Mazzarella,2017-10-24 We often invoke the magic of mass media to describe seductive advertising or charismatic politicians In The Mana of Mass Society William Mazzarella asks what happens to social theory if we take that idea seriously How would it change our understanding of publicity propaganda love and power Mazzarella reconsiders the concept of mana which served in early anthropology as a troubled bridge between primitive ritual and the fascination of mass media Thinking about mana Mazzarella shows means rethinking some of our most fundamental questions What powers authority What in us responds to it Is the mana that animates an Aboriginal ritual the same as the mana that energizes a revolutionary crowd a consumer public or an art encounter At the intersection of anthropology and critical theory The Mana of Mass Society brings recent conversations around affect sovereignty and emergence into creative contact with classic debates on religion charisma ideology and aesthetics

Gielen, Jaipaul L. Roopnarine, 2016-01-11 This comprehensive reference analyzes psychological and anthropological studies concerning child and adolescent development across cultures digging into often forgotten topics like street children child soldiers and parenting in war torn countries Traditionally research on child and adolescent development has focused on American youth inadvertently neglecting 96 percent of the world s children This all encompassing volume introduces global perspectives on young people across the globe focusing on such topics as parenting and childcare gender roles violence against girls adolescence in poor and rich countries and developmental psychopathology across cultures Recently updated the second edition includes the latest findings in the field additional content and new photos and charts With contributions from leading psychological and anthropological scholars chapters address worldwide changes in children s lives parent child relationships sibling relationships immigrant children and their families and adolescents in both industrialized and developing nations A special section discusses children living in difficult circumstances including street children child soldiers global nomads and children suffering from various internalizing and externalizing disorders This book is the perfect introduction to the latest trends in developmental psychology From Primitive to Postcolonial in Melanesia and Anthropology Bruce Knauff, 2025-10-01 What have anthropologists taught us about Melanesia one of anthropology s most important and intensively studied world regions In this book Professor Bruce Knauff draws together and critically reanalyzes what we know about major features of Melanesian cultural history warfare and politics gender bodily practices and spirituality as discerned from more than a century of academic study From Primitive to Postcolonial in Melanesia and Anthropology is arguably the most comprehensive single reassessment of Melanesia as an ethnographic world area to have been published in several decades. Written for students as well as professional scholars, this work further broadens our understanding by analyzing the history of Melanesian ethnography and relating this history to the larger relationship between Melanesia as a contemporary world area and anthropology as a field of contemporary human study. Bruce M. Knaft is Professor of Anthropology, Emory University, and the author of three previous books as well as some thirty journal articles and chapters. Knaft's interests span a wide range of issues in the anthropology of Melanesia, and he is articulate with general issues of cultural theory and anthropological history.

Widening the Frame with Visual Psychological Anthropology Robert Lemelson, Annie Tucker, 2021-10-28. This book uses visual psychological anthropology to explore trauma, gendered violence, and stigma through a discussion of three ethnographic films set in Indonesia: 40 Years of Silence (Lemelson, 2009), Bitter Honey (Lemelson, 2015), and Standing on the Edge of a Thorn (Lemelson, 2012). This exploration widens the frame in two senses. First, it offers an integrative analysis that connects the discrete topics and theoretical concerns of each film to crosscutting themes in Indonesian history, society, and culture. Additionally, it sheds light on all that falls outside the literal frame of the screen, including the film's origins, psychocultural and interpersonal dynamics, and constraints of deep, ongoing collaborations in the field. Narrative and emotional orientations toward editing, participants' relationship to their screened image, the life of the films after release, and the ethics of each stage of filmmaking. In doing so, the authors widen the frame for psychological anthropology as well, advocating for film as a crucial point of engagement for academic audiences and for translational purposes. Rich with critical insights and reflections on ethnographic filmmaking, this book will appeal to both scholars and students of visual anthropology, psychological anthropology, and ethnographic methods. It also serves as an engrossing companion to three contemporary ethnographic films.

Evolution and Human Sexual Behavior Peter B. Gray, Justin R. Garcia, 2013-04-15. A comprehensive survey of the evolutionary science of human sexual behavior, Evolution and Human Sexual Behavior invites us to imagine human sex from the vantage point of our primate cousins in order to underscore the role of evolution in shaping all that happens biologically and behaviorally when romantic passions are aroused.
