Cadenhead, 2003 Encyclopedia of Distributed Learning Anna DiStefano, Kjell Erik Rudestam, Robert Silverman, 2003-11-06 This volume will appeal to a wide array of readers from novices to those already working in the field. Recommended for all collections. CHOICE Reference literature has been hard put to keep pace with its distance learning changes so the appearance of an Encyclopedia is most welcome. Recommended for academic and public libraries. LIBRARY JOURNAL In today's fast paced world with multiple demands on time and resources as well as pressures for career advancement and productivity self directed learning is an increasingly popular and practical alternative in continuing education. The Encyclopedia of Distributed Learning defines and applies the best practices of contemporary continuing education designed for adults in corporate settings, Open University settings, graduate coursework and in similar learning environments. Written for a wide audience in the distance and continuing education field the Encyclopedia is a valuable resource for deans and administrators at universities and colleges, reference librarians in academic and public institutions, HR officials involved with continuing education training programs in corporate settings and those involved in the academic disciplines of Education, Psychology, Information Technology and Library Science. Sponsored by The Fielding Graduate Institute this extensive reference work is edited by long time institute members bringing with them the philosophy and authoritative background of this premier institution. The Fielding Graduate Institute is well known for offering mid career professionals opportunities for self directed mentored study with the flexibility of time and location that enables students to maintain commitments to family work and community. The Encyclopedia of Distributed Learning includes over 275 entries each written by a specialist in that area giving the reader comprehensive coverage of all aspects of distributed learning including use of group processes, self assessment, the life line experience and developing a learning contract. Topics Covered: Administrative Processes, Policy, Finance and Governance, Social and Cultural Perspectives, Student and Faculty Issues, Teaching and Learning Processes and Technologies, Technical Tools and Supports. Key Features: A to Z organization plus Reader's Guide, groups entries by broad topic areas. Over 275 entries each written by a specialist in that area. Comprehensive index and cross references between entries add to the encyclopedia's ease of use. Annotated listings for additional resources including distance learning programs, print and non print resources and conferences. Advisory Board: Tony Bates, University of British Columbia; Gregory S. Teach Yourself Java 1.1 Programming in 24 Hours Rogers Cadenhead, 1997 Access & Equity Asian Association of Open Universities. Conference, H. P. Dikshit, 2002. The emergence of the system of open and distance education is an inevitable and phenomenal evolution in the history of education developments internationally. Access Equity Challenges for Open and Distance Learning crystallizes the emerging concerns of the open and distance learning institutions the world over. In the past few decades a proliferation in the number of ODL institutions and courses programmes offerings has resulted in exponential growth in student enrollment in the system. The system is poised for further expansion in the coming years as its virtually unlimited potential to impart education to anybody anywhere and anytime is being recognised by educationists, policy makers and planners. There is however a large body of learners that has yet to be reached and providing access to them while ensuring equity poses definite challenges for the ODL system. The ODL system has the capacity to integrate the state of the art technologies with the time tested methodologies.
